

MEN'S VARSITY PROFILES

ADRIAN ANDREWS

5-9 • 140 • JUNIOR
TIBURON, CALIF.
(REDWOOD HS)

Major at Washington: Business entrepreneurship
Husky Rowing Experience: 2003 (Freshman)—Member of Freshman 8 which finished in 4th place at IRAs. 2004 (Sophomore)—Coxed the varsity four crew to an undefeated season ... collected gold at the IRA and Pac-10 championships ... the four won the Washington State dual and Windermere

Cup events during the regular season.

Personal: Son of Dianne and Terence Andrews ... mother attended UC Berkeley and is a real estate agent ... father is involved in property management ... also has a younger sister, Jessica, who attends the University of Oregon.

I chose Washington because: To be a national champion.

The best thing about Seattle is: The plethora of restaurants.

The best thing about UW is: Jumping the steps next to the IMA on my bike.

Favorite class: Interpretive dance.

My best race was: The final at IRAs varsity 4 at Camden, NJ.

After I graduate, I plan to: Tour the world for a year.

Andrews says: "It's all in the hips."

EVAN GALLOWAY

5-11 • 165 • SENIOR
BAINBRIDGE ISLAND, WASH.
(BAINBRIDGE HS)

High School Sports: Cross-country and Track
High School Awards: Two-time state cross-country qualifier ... 2000 All-Olympic League cross-country team ... 2001 Bainbridge Student Athlete of the year ... National Merit Scholar

Major at Washington: Neurobiology

Husky Rowing Experience: 2002 (Freshman)—Rowed in open four that won gold at the IRA Championships ... member of freshman squad. 2003 (Sophomore)—Rowed the bow for the Husky crew that won the varsity four title at the IRA Championships ... the bow for UW's winning varsity eight boat in the dual with Washington State ... occupied the bow for the Huskies' varsity four crew in dual wins over California and Oregon State and in a victory at the Windermere Cup ... collected a silver medal in the varsity four at the Pac-10 Championships. 2004 (Junior)—Collected his third national championship ring in as many seasons, rowing in the bow for UW's IRA national championship varsity four ... the four also won the Pac-10 championship ... again competed with the Husky varsity four and again won at the IRA Championships ... UW's varsity four won the Washington State dual and Windermere Cup events during the regular season.

Personal: Son of Michael Galloway and Patricia Klimek ... mother attended Washington State University and is a controller ... father is a restaurateur.

I chose Washington because: Of the great climate.

The best thing about Seattle is: Seafood.

The best thing about UW is: The diversity of academic opportunities and The Ave.

Favorite class: Neurobiology 301.

My best race was: 2004 IRA Championships; because we fought hard to get to the final and then had our best race of the season.

After I graduate, I plan to: Travel.

If I could tell my incoming teammates one thing, it would be: Row well and live.

Galloway says: "Washington rowing has a tradition of rowing and winning."

SCOTT GAULT

6-6 • 210 • SENIOR
PIEDMONT, CALIF.
(PIEDMONT HS)

High School Sports: Football, basketball and golf.
High School Awards: Southwest regional silver medal, 2001 ... ARC's Gold medal, summer 2000.
Major at Washington: Industrial Engineering
Husky Rowing Experience: 2002 (Freshman)—Rowed seven seat in the freshman eight that won a gold medal at IRAs

... member of crew that went undefeated all season ... helped lead Huskies to a gold medal at Pac-10's and the San Diego Crew Classic ... also contributed to victories at the Windermere Cup, California, Washington State and Oregon State duals. 2003 (Sophomore)—The stroke on UW's four that won two match races and advanced to the quarterfinals of the Britannia Challenge Cup competition at the Henley Regatta ... earned a silver medal at the IRA Championships as the No. 6 seat in the junior varsity eight boat ... also competed on UW's Pac-10 runner-up junior varsity eight ... rowed in the No. 4 seat in Husky junior varsity dual victories over California, Oregon State and in the Windermere Cup. 2004 (Junior)—Member of the varsity eight which took home the silver medal at the IRA Championships ... UW's varsity eight won the Pac-10 championship with Gault in the No. 6 seat.

Personal: Son of Roger and Roxanne Gault ... mother attended the University of Oregon and is an interior decorator ... father attended Arizona State University and is an aviation and marine insurance broker ... has one older sister, Courtney (24) who attended UCLA.

I chose Washington because: I chose Washington for the rowing.

The best thing about Seattle is: The endless opportunities.

The best thing about UW is: The pride and tradition.

Favorite class: Negotiations

My best race was: Pac-10s in 2004; Never count out our sprint.

After I graduate, I plan to: Pursue industrial engineering

If I could tell my incoming teammates one thing, it would be: Winning is worth the effort.

Gault says: "One goal - to win."

DAVID HOLDEN

6-4 • 205 • SOPHOMORE
SPOKANE, WASH.
(MEAD HS)

High School Sports: Soccer and Football

Major at Washington: Biology

Husky Rowing Experience: 2004 (Freshman)—Rowed in UW's top freshman boat the entire season, usually occupying the No. 6 seat ... the Huskies won the freshman race at the Windermere Cup regatta.

Personal: Son of Esther Larsen and Peter Holden ... mother attended USC and is a lawyer ... father attended Wisconsin and is a pediatrician ... has two brother, Kris and Will ... Kris attended Eastern Washington and is a physical therapist while Will attended Spokane Falls Community College and the manager of the Patriot Fire Co.

I chose Washington because: Because of the great academic programs.

The best thing about Seattle is: The big city atmosphere.

The best thing about UW is: Rowing.

Favorite class: Mechanical Engineering 123.

My best race was: At the Cal duel last year because even though we did not win that was our best performance.

After I graduate, I plan to: Teach high school biology.

If I could tell my incoming teammates one thing, it would be: Don't slack.

Holden says: "It's about greatness."

MEN'S VARSITY PROFILES

GREG KING

5-6 • 120 • SENIOR
MANASSAS, VA.
(ST. ANDREW'S SCHOOL)

High School Sports: Cross Country, wrestling and rowing.
High School Awards: Received three varsity letters for crew competition at St. Andrew's School in Delaware.

Major at Washington: English

Husky Rowing Experience: 2002 (Freshman)—Served as coxswain of the freshman eight that won a gold medal at IRA Championships ... directed the crew that went undefeated all season ... helped lead Huskies to a gold medal at Pac-10s and the San Diego Crew Classic ... also contributed to victories at the Windermere Cup, California, Washington State and Oregon State duals. 2003 (Sophomore)—Attended school at Washington, but did not participate with the rowing team. 2004 (Junior)—Was a member of the junior varsity eight, and varsity eight at different times throughout the season ... won gold at the San Diego Crew Classic with the junior varsity eight ... led the varsity eight to gold at the Pac-10 Championships and then helped to earn silver at the IRA Championships.

Personal: Son of Christine and Sidney King ... mother is an oncology nurse ... father attended the University of Toronto and is a physician ... older sister, Lesley (31) is a teacher ... older brother, Jonathan (23) attended Cornell.

I chose Washington because: To come to the West Coast.

The best thing about Seattle is: The sun.

The best things about UW is: Crew.

Favorite class: Any English class.

My best race was: The 2004 Pac-10 Championships; we came back a boat length on Cal in the last 200 meters.

If I could tell my incoming teammates one thing, it would be: Have a jolly good time!

King says: "Second is never good enough."

MATT KOPICKY

6-1 • 195 • SENIOR
SEATTLE, WASH.
(BALLARD HS)

High School Sports: Rowing

High School Awards: Two-year varsity rower for Green Lake crew ... finished first and third at the 2001 US Rowing Youth Invite.

Major at Washington: Construction Management

Husky Rowing Experience: 2002 (Freshman)—Rowed bow seat in the freshman eight that won a gold medal at IRAs ... member of crew that went undefeated all season ... helped lead Huskies to a gold medal at Pac-10's and the San Diego Crew Classic ... also contributed to victories at the Windermere Cup, California, Washington State and Oregon State duals. 2003 (Sophomore)—The bow seat on UW's four that won two match races and advanced to the quarterfinals of the Britannia Challenge Cup competition at the Henley Regatta ... earned a silver medal at the IRA Championships as the bow seat in the junior varsity eight boat ... also competed on UW's Pac-10 runner-up junior varsity eight ... rowed in the bow seat in Husky junior varsity dual victories over California, Oregon State and in the Windermere Cup. 2004 (Junior)—Rowed in the bow seat all season on UW's junior varsity eight ... helped lead the Huskies to the IRA national championship in the junior varsity event ... collected a gold medal with the JV at the Pac-10 championships ... member of the San Diego Crew Classic junior varsity titlists.

Personal: Son of Art and Janet Kopicky ... mother attended UW and is a teacher ... father attended University of Colorado and is a minister ... has one older brother, Ryan (23) who is a senior at Seattle Pacific University and one younger brother, Eric (16).

I chose Washington because: The rowing program and the campus.

The best thing about Seattle is: The Scandinavian heritage.

The best thing about UW is: The diversity and local opportunities.

Favorite Class: Architecture 321.

My best race was: Ham and egger #2 in 2002.

After I graduate, I plan to: Be a guide at a mountaineering program.

If I could tell my incoming teammates one thing, it would be: Let your rowing speak for itself.

Kopicky says:

"Upholding 100 years of tradition by maximizing your potential."

MEN'S VARSITY PROFILES

DUSTIN KRAUS

6-0 • 185 • SOPHOMORE
SACRAMENTO, CALIF.
(RIO AMERICANO HS)

High School Awards: Rowed for Capital Crew in Sacramento, Calif. for four years ... during final three years rowed for the varsity eight ... earned the stroke position for the 2002 development camp eight which finished 3rd at the U.S. Nationals.

Major at Washington: General Construction

Husky Rowing Experience: 2004 (Freshman)—Rowed on freshman eight all year ... UW's freshman crew finished fourth at the Pac-10 Championships ... helped his crew win the freshman race at the Windermere Cup.

Personal: Son of Debbie and Jim Kraus ... mother attended Chico State and is a principle ... father attended Kansas State and is a general construction worker ... has one sister, Nicole (23) who attended UC Davis.

I chose Washington because: For its academics and rowing.

The best thing about Seattle is: It has the best workout water.

The best thing about UW is: The campus on a clear day.

Favorite class: Sociology of Sexuality.

My best race was: Windermere Cup 2003; we pulled off in the last five strokes.

After I graduate, I plan to: Work in advertising.

If I could tell my incoming teammates one thing, it would be: Don't limit yourself, fear no one.

Kraus says: "Washington rowing - It's the best there is."

ANTE KUSURIN

6-2 • 210 • JUNIOR
ZAGREB, CROATIA
(TITUS BREZOVACKI)

High School Sports: Rowing

Major at Washington: Business Finance

Husky Rowing Experience: 2002 (Freshman)—Rowed six seat in the freshman eight that won a gold medal at IRAs ... member of crew that went undefeated all season ... helped lead Huskies to a gold medal at Pac-10's and the San Diego Crew Classic ... also contributed to victories at the Windermere Cup, California, Washington State and Oregon State duals. 2003 (Sophomore)—Rowed in the Huskies' top boat all season ... moved into the stroke seat for the Windermere Cup (May 3) and the Huskies proceeded to win their next six races ... Stroked the varsity eight to its first Pac-10 championship since 1997 ... Helped UW collect the silver medal in the varsity eight event at the IRA Championships ... Did not compete at Henley with the Huskies due to obligations with the Croatian National Team. 2004 (Red-shirt)—Did not compete for UW while utilizing his red-shirt season ... Spent the year training with the Croatian National Team.

National Team Experience: Member of Croatian National Team ... A member of Croatia's 2004 Olympic Team ... Placed fifth in a double at the 2002 Under-23 World Championships in Genoa, Italy ... placed 16th in a double at the Elite World Championships in Seville, Spain.

Personal: Son of Ivica and Zeljka Kusurin ... has one younger brother (17), who is also a rower ...has one younger sister, Iva (7).

I chose UW because: It's the toughest program in the USA and the world and I like evergreens.

The best thing about Seattle is: The nice buildings, boats, environment, and nice weather.

The best thing about UW is: UW crew team.

Favorite class: Any of the business classes.

My best race was: The 2001 Germany, Junior Worlds; we were the world champs two times.

After I graduate, I plan to: Go to graduate school in England, hopefully Oxford or Cambridge, then become an investment banker.

If I could tell my incoming teammates one thing, it would be: It's the best life experience you are going to get, use it wisely, use it all.

Kusurin says: "It hurts a lot."

GIUSEPPE LANZONE

6-4 • 220 • SENIOR
MCLEAN, VA.
(MCLEAN HS)

High School Sports: Football and rowing

High School Awards: Three-time letterwinner in football ... 2001 football MVP ... Two-time letterwinner in rowing ... Top American at Crash-B erg Championships, 2001.

Major at Washington: Communications

Husky Rowing Experience: 2002 (Freshman)—Rowed five seat in the freshman eight that won a gold medal at IRAs ... member of crew that went undefeated all season ... helped lead Huskies to a gold medal at Pac-10's and the San Diego Crew Classic ... also contributed to victories at the Windermere Cup, California, Washington State and Oregon State duals. 2003 (Sophomore)—Opened the season in the No. 3 seat, then moved to the sixth seat for two races before settling into the No. 4 spot for the final three regattas of the season ... helped the UW varsity eight to its first Pac-10 championship since 1997 ... member of the silver medal crew at the IRA Championships ... rowed in the No. 4 seat on UW's victorious eight in the Ladies Challenge Plate competition at the prestigious Henley Regatta in England. 2004 (Junior)—Rowed in the No. 5 seat at the San Diego Classic before moving into the No. 4 seat for the rest of the season ... helped the Huskies win the California dual, the Windermere Cup and Oregon State dual varsity eight races during the regular season ... Collected a gold medal with the varsity eight at the Pac-10 Championships ... The Huskies garnered the silver medal at the 2004 IRA National Championships.

Personal: Son of Mario and Gisella Lanzone ... has one younger brother, Mario (19) ... Born in Peru and lived in Lima until he was 15-years-old.

I chose Washington because: Of the rower unity.

The best thing about Seattle is: The weather.

The best thing about UW is: The campus.

Favorite Class: Chemistry 309

My best race was: IRA freshman year because we won.

After I graduate I plan to: Travel the world

If I could tell my incoming teammates one thing, it would be: Row hard and relax your shoulders.

MEN'S VARSITY PROFILES

KYLE LARSON

6-4 • 220 • SENIOR
MOUNT VERNON, WASH.
(MOUNT VERNON HS)

High School Sports: Cross-country, basketball, track, football and swimming

Major at Washington: Architecture/Construction Management

Husky Rowing Experience: 2002 (Freshman)—Rowed four seat in the freshman eight that won a gold medal at IRAs

... member of crew that went undefeated all season ... helped lead Huskies to a gold medal at Pac-10's and the San Diego Crew Classic ... also contributed to victories at the Windermere Cup, California, Washington State and Oregon State duals. 2003 (Sophomore)—Opened the season in the junior varsity boat ... helped the JVs to a silver medal at the San Diego Crew Classic and a win in the California dual ... was promoted to the varsity eight for the Windermere Cup and remained in the top boat for the final five regattas ... rowed in the No. 3 seat, helping the UW varsity eight to its first Pac-10 championship since 1997 ... member of the silver medal crew at the IRA Championships ... rowed on UW's victorious eight in the Ladies Challenge Plate competition at the prestigious Henley Regatta in England. 2004 (Junior)—Collected a gold medal with the victorious junior varsity eight crew at the IRA National Championships ... Rowed the No. 3 seat with the undefeated junior varsity eight crew ... helped the huskies to regular-season wins in the Windermere Cup along with the California and Oregon State duals ... Received a gold medal for a first-place performance at the Pac-10 Championships.

National Team Experience: Rowed on the US national team during the summer 2002 ... won bronze in the pair at the 2002 Under-23 World Championships.

Personal: Son of Mark and Kathy Larson ... mother attended UW and is a nurse ... father attended Washington State University and is a safety manager for Shell Oil ... has one younger brother, Ross (18) ... is member of Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity ... made Dean's list 2002.

I chose Washington because: It was close to home and had the academic programs I wanted.

The best thing about Seattle is: The summer.

The best thing about UW is: The campus layout and location on the water.

Favorite class: Construction contract documents.

My best race was: San Diego Crew Classic freshman year; it was my first race ever and we dominated.

After I graduate, I plan to: Get a job.

If I could tell my incoming teammates one thing, it would be: Work harder than the other guy.

Larson says:

"Washington rowing is an opportunity to be greater than that of yourself."

BRETT NEWLIN

6-9 • 240 • SENIOR
RIVERTON, WYO.
(RIVERTON HS/MICHIGAN ST.)

High School Sports: Cross country and swimming

High School Awards: Received all-state and all-conference honors in swimming.

Major at Washington: Computer Engineering

Husky Rowing Experience: 2003 (Sophomore)—Joined the team in January after transferring from Michigan State which does not sponsor an intercollegiate rowing program ... immediately earned a spot on the varsity eight ... opened the season in the No. 4 seat, helping UW to a silver medal at the San Diego Crew Classic ... rowed in the third seat for the Huskies' Windermere Cup victory ... settled into the No. 5 seat for the final three regattas of the season ... helped the UW varsity eight to its first Pac-10 championship since 1997 ... member of the silver medal crew at the IRA Championships ... rowed on UW's victorious eight in the Ladies Challenge Plate competition at the prestigious Henley Regatta in England. 2004 (Junior)—Rowed in the No. 5 seat nearly the entire season with the varsity eight crew ... helped UW to its second straight Pac-10 title in the varsity eight event ... Collected a silver medal with the varsity eight boat at the IRA Championships ... Moved into the varsity eight crew for the California dual, which UW won ... the Huskies also registered varsity eight victories in the Windermere Cup and Oregon State dual ... helped the Huskies win the San Diego Crew Classic junior varsity event.

Personal: Son of Patricia and Michael Newlin ... father attended the University of Utah ... mother attended Purdue and is a high school teacher ... younger sister, Kristen (19) is a sophomore on the women's basketball team at Stanford.

I chose Washington because: Why not?

The best thing about Seattle is: The weather.

The best thing about UW is: The people you meet.

My best race was: Henley in 2003, Ladies Plate champions; because we won a world-class event.

After I graduate, I plan to: Find a career in the computer field.

If I could tell my incoming teammates one thing, it would be: Race like champions.

Newlin says: "If you are tall, take advantage of it."

The 2004 University of Washington men's rowing team

MEN'S VARSITY PROFILES

DUSAN NIKOLIC

6-5 • 220 • SENIOR
BELGRADE, SERBIA
(11TH BELGRADE HS)

High School Sports: Rowing
Major at Washington: Political Science
Husky Rowing Experience: 2002 (Freshman)—Rowed in the varsity eight and helped crew to bronze medal at IRA Championships ... finished second at Pac-10 Championships and won a silver medal at the San Diego Crew Classic ... also captured Windermere Cup on Opening Day ... helped varsity eight to victories at the California and Wisconsin duals. 2003 (Sophomore)—Earned a silver medal at the IRA Championships as the No. 7 seat in the junior varsity eight boat ... also competed on UW's Pac-10 runner-up junior varsity eight ... rowed in the No. 7 seat in Husky junior varsity dual victories over Oregon State and in the Windermere Cup ... started the season as the varsity eight stroke, rowing in second-place outings at the San Diego Crew Classic along with the Wisconsin and California duals. 2004 (Junior)—Collected a gold medal with the junior varsity eight crew at the IRA National Championships ... Rowed the No. 6 seat with the undefeated junior varsity at the Pac-10 championships and IRA regatta ... helped the Husky jayvees to regular-season wins in the California and Oregon State duals ... Received a gold medal at the Pac-10 Championships ... rowed in the varsity eight boat at the San Diego Crew Classic, the Wisconsin and the Windermere Cup ... UW won the varsity eight title at the Windermere Cup.

National Team Experience: Competed on the Serbian National Team ... finished ninth in a pair at the 2002 Under 23 World Championships in Genoa, Italy ... member of the Yugoslavian National team since 1999.

Personal: Son of Zoran and Zorica Nikolic ... mother attended Belgrade University and is a journalist ... father attended Sport University of Belgrade and is a professor ... has a younger sister, Milica.

I chose Washington because: Good school and great rowing program.

The best thing about Seattle is: Alki Beach.

The best thing about UW is: Very nice campus and student diversity.

Favorite Class: Political Science 330 - Communications and International Relations

My best race was: The dual race against Cal, 2002 and junior varsity finals at last year's IRAs.

After I graduate, I plan to: Celebrate.

If I could tell my incoming teammates one thing, it would be: If you are not going to give 100 percent, don't even start.

Nikolic says: "Washington Rowing is the only way to go."

ALAN ORIARD

6-5 • 210 • SOPHOMORE
CORVALLIS, ORE.
(CRESCENT VALLEY HS)

High School Sports: Played Football and basketball.
Major at Washington: Undeclared
Husky Rowing Experience: 2004 (Freshman)—Rowed the No. 3 seat in the top freshman boat for the Windermere Cup (May 1), which UW won ... Competed at the IRA Championships in the varsity pair without coxswain with Kevin Bacha ... Finished second in the petite final, placing eighth overall.

Personal: Son of Julie and Michael Oriard ... mother attended Eastern Washington and is a teacher ... father attended Notre Dame and Stanford and is an associate dean at Oregon State ... also has a brother, Colin (24) who played basketball at Lewis & Clark College.

I chose Washington because: The location.

The best thing about Seattle is: Greenlake basketball court.

The best thing about UW is: Being on the lake.

My best race was: Last race at IRAs.

After I graduate, I plan to: Start my own business.

If I could tell my incoming teammates one thing, it would be: Beat Cal.

JACOB PETTIT

6-3 • 210 • SENIOR
SNOHOMISH, WASH.
(SNOHOMISH HS)

Major at Washington: Civil Engineering.
Husky Rowing Experience: 2004 (Junior)—Collected a gold medal as a member of UW's national championship varsity four crew ... Rowed in the No. 2 seat for the Husky four that won the IRA Championship race by over two seconds ... Also received a gold medal for a first-place performance with the varsity four at the Pac-10 Championships ... The four won the Windermere Cup competition.

Personal: Son of Amy and Jeff Pettit ... also has a brother, Justin (20) ... is married.

I chose Washington because: It was local, has a good engineering program, and rowing.

The best thing about Seattle is: My wife.

The best thing about UW is: Rowing.

Favorite class: Limmology.

My best race was: Winning IRA in 2004.

After I graduate, I plan to: Work.

If I could tell my incoming teammates one thing, it would be: Work hard.

Pettit says: "It's all about the calves."

COLIN PHILLIPS

6-8 • 205 • JUNIOR
CORONADO, CALIF.
(THE BISHOP'S SCHOOL)

High School Sports: Played Water Polo, Swimming, and rowing.

High School Awards: Graduated Com Laude ... won Spanish award ... was an AP National Scholar.

Major at Washington: Biochemistry

Husky Rowing Experience: 2003 (Freshman)—Stroked the top freshman eight crew all season ... The Huskies' freshman eight won the Windermere Cup competition ... UW's top first-year crew finished fifth at the IRA National Championships. 2004 (Sophomore)—Collected a gold medal as a member of UW's national championship varsity four crew ... Rowed in the No. 3 seat for the Husky four that won the IRA Championship race by over two seconds ... Also received a gold medal for a first-place performance with the varsity four at the Pac-10 Championships ... The four won the Windermere Cup competition.

Personal: Son of Adrienne and Paul Phillips ... mother attended Syracuse ... father attended the University of Rochester and is a cardiologist ... has two brothers, Justin (19) and Galen (17) ... Justin is a freshman at Cal Poly and Galen is a senior in high school.

I chose Washington because: The great rowing and academics.

The best thing about Seattle is: 90.3 KEXP and "The Best Ambiance" (The radio)

The best thing about UW is: Its size.

Favorite class: A&S 262 with Clarke Speed

My best race was: 2004 IRAs; we found an extra gear when we needed it to finish a perfect season.

After I graduate, I plan to: Come back.

If I could tell my incoming teammates one thing, it would be: Keep on truckin' like a novocaine hurricane.

Phillips says: "Washington rowing is about respect."

MEN'S VARSITY PROFILES

MARTIN ROGULJA

6-4 • 205 • SENIOR
ZAGREB, CROATIA
(X.V. HS)

High School Sports: Rowing
Major at Washington: International Studies
Husky Rowing Experience: 2003 (Sophomore)—Transferred to UW after rowing one year at Temple University ... Utilized red-shirt season. 2004 (Junior)—Member of the varsity eight which took home the silver medal at the IRA Championships ... Collected a gold medal as the Huskies won their second straight Pac-10 varsity eight title ... Rowed in the No. 3 seat for UW's final three regattas ... Competed in the No. 6 seat with the junior varsity eight for one race, the Windermere Cup which UW won ... helped the Huskies win the California and Oregon State duals.

Personal: Son of Vesna and Zeljko Rogulja ... both parents attended Zagreb University ... mother is a civil engineer ... father is a professional dog groomer ... received a special award for academic excellence through all four years of high school.

I chose Washington because: Excellent school, good rowing program, sunny weather.

The best thing about UW is: The beautiful campus, good professors and excellent programs.

Favorite Class: International economical policy.

My best race was: Pac-10 Championships in 2004 when Bob almost had a heart attack.

After I graduate, I plan to: Row for Cambridge University and continue my education.

If I could tell my incoming teammates one thing, it would be: Be prepared for intense and motivating competition.

Rogulja says: "Row hard. No Excuses."

SCOTT SCHMIDT

6-6 • 210 • JUNIOR
GROSSE ILE, MICH.
(GROSSE ILE HS)

High School Sports: Played Hockey and rowing.
Major at Washington: Communications
Husky Rowing Experience: 2003 (Freshman)—Rowed in the Nos. 3 and 4 seats for the top freshman eight crew all season ... The Huskies' freshman eight won the Windermere Cup competition ... UW's top first-year crew finished fifth at the IRA National Championships. 2004 (Sophomore)—Rowed in the No. 7 seat nearly the entire season with the varsity eight crew ... helped UW to its second straight Pac-10 title in the varsity eight event ... Collected a silver medal with the varsity eight boat at the IRA Championships ... Moved into the varsity eight crew for the California dual, which UW won ... the Huskies also registered varsity eight victories in the Windermere Cup and Oregon State dual ... helped the Huskies win the San Diego Crew Classic junior varsity event.

Personal: Son of Sandra and Bruce Schmidt ... mother attended Wayne State and is a teacher ... father attended the University of Detroit ... has one sister, Sarah (17) and one brother, Eric (18) ... Sarah is a senior in high school and Eric is a freshman at Michigan.

I chose Washington because: The opportunity to row for the nations' premier team and at the same time get a great education.

The best thing about Seattle is: The arrival of Martin Rogulja.

The best thing about UW is: Its proximity to many outdoor activities.

Favorite class: Paper Sciences 104

My best race was: Cal Duel 2004; because it was my first race in the varsity eight and we led from end to end. It has always been good to beat the Bears.

After I graduate, I plan to: Row until I cannot any longer, then become a rowing coach.

If I could tell my incoming teammates one thing, it would be: Get ready for the ride of your life.

Schmidt says: "Washington rowing = get big or die!"

ADAM VAN WINKLE

6-6 • 215 • JUNIOR
MUKILTEO, WASH.
(KAMIAK HS)

High School Sports: Tennis and rowing.
Major at Washington: Communications
Husky Rowing Experience: 2003 (Freshman)—Rowed in the No. 3 seat on the freshman crew that placed fourth at the IRA Championships ... the Huskies' top freshman boat won its Windermere Cup race. 2004 (Sophomore)—Rowed the No.

7 seat for the varsity eight crew that won the Washington State dual ... Member of crew that placed first at the Portland Loop ... also won the Head of the Lake Regatta as a member of the junior varsity crew ... rowed for winning crew in the US Rowing Championships senior pair.

Personal: Son of Cheryl and Spark VanWinkle ... mother and father both attended Washington and are now business owners ... has a sister, Dorrie (23) who attended Chapman University and is a sales representative now.

I chose Washington because: Tradition.

The best thing about Seattle is: The mountains.

The best thing about UW is: All the water.

Favorite class: Com 270 - Interpersonal communication

My best race was: The Portland Loop in 2003; We were put under pressure and we were able to come through with a strong victory.

After I graduate, I plan to: Work for my parents.

If I could tell my incoming teammates one thing, it would be: Beware of the lake.

Van Winkle says: "Work hard, go fast."

The seniors of 2004 captured the men's trophy at the annual Class Day Regatta last spring.