2005 Regular Season Comes to a Close As Huskies Travel to Face UCLA

THIS WEEK: The Washington baseball team (30-22 overall, 9-12 in the Pac-10 Conference) travels to face UCLA (15-37, 4-17 Pac-10) in the final weekend of the regular season this Friday, Saturday and Sunday at Jackie Robinson Stadium in Westwood. The Huskies, who took two of three games from then-No. 17 Arizona State last weekend, would need to sweep the UCLA series to finish .500 (12-12) in conference play. That, combined with other favorable results, could put the Huskies in contention for a berth in the NCAA tournament, the field for which will be announced Monday, May 30, at 8:30 a.m. PDT on ESPN. Should the Huskies earn an NCAA berth, they would begin play the following Friday, June 3. Live audio and statistics for all three UW-UCLA games will be available on the internet at gohuskies.com. Here's a look at this weekend's series at UCLA, with probable starting Husky pitchers (NOTE: Saturday's game time has been changed to 2:00 p.m. It was originally 6:00 p.m.):

Friday, May 27: Washington at UCLA, 7:00 p.m., audio at gohuskies.com – RHP Tim Lincecum (7-6, 3.33)

Saturday, May 28: Washington at UCLA, 2:00 p.m., audio at gohuskies.com – LHP David Dowling (6-1, 4.24)

Sunday, May 29: Washington at UCLA, 1:00 p.m., audio at gohuskies.com – RHP Kyle Parker (7-7, 5.14)

SERIES HISTORY: UCLA leads the all-time series against Washington with 24 wins and 10 losses in the 34 all-time meetings. However, prior to the 1999 merger of the Pac-10's two divisions, the Huskies had gone 0-16 all-time against the Bruins. Since then, the Huskies have gone 10-8 against UCLA, 4-5 in games at Jackie Robinson Stadium. Last season, the Bruins won two of three games against the UW at Husky Ballpark. UCLA won games one (3-1) and three (4-3) while the Huskies won the second game, 7-2. The last time the Huskies visited Westwood, in 2003, the Huskies won two of three, losing the opener before winning the final two games of the weekend.

COACH "K" : Last season, Husky baseball coach Ken Knutson became the winningest baseball coach in the history of the program. That accomplishment is just one item on Knutson's impressive resume. In his 13 seasons (including 2005) at the helm of his alma mater's baseball team, Knutson has led the Dawgs to two Pac-10 championships, four Pac-10 Northern Division titles, two other second-place finishes and six NCAA Regionals. His career overall record now stands at 458-295-2 (.608). Before becoming the Husky head man prior to the 1993 season, Knutson served as the Husky pitching coach for eight seasons. In 1985, his UW pitching staff led the nation with a 2.80 ERA. Knutson holds a 227-97-2 (.699) record in home games. He is 191-136 (.584) in Pac-10 games. Knutson has coached 44 first-team All-Pac-10 selections in 12 seasons, and has been named league coach of the year three times. A 1981 All-Pac-10 left-handed pitcher at the UW, he is joined by assistants Joe Ross, Donny Harrel, and Gregg Swenson.

WASHINGTON BASEBALL

MAY 24, 2005

WEB & RADIO BROADCASTS: Live audio of all of Washington's games this year will be available either over the radio, on the internet or both. For information on how to listen to the games, go to gohuskies.com, and click on the audio/video link. All remaining games will air on the internet only. However, if the Huskies make the NCAA tournament, all postseason games would be carried on KKNW AM-1150.

NORTHWEST FLAVOR: As is usually the case, the Husky baseball roster is made up primarily of players from the state of Washington. This year, however, it's nearly unanimous as 35 of the 36 players on the team are from the state of Washington. The only non-Washingtonian on the team is senior second baseman Mike Rundle, from Bend, Oregon. However, Rundle, in his first season with the Huskies, played last season at Gonzaga, which is located in Spokane, Wash. Of the 35 in-state players, 29 are from the western part of the state (west of the Cascades).

HOMERS AND DEFENSE: Over the last several years, Washington has become a fixture in the NCAA rankings in two team categories: home runs (per game) and fielding. Entering this week, the Huskies led the nation in fielding (at .978) and were No. 20 in home runs, a 1.19 per game. The Huskies were also No. 4 in the NCAA in double plays with 1.25 per game. The UW, of course, also leads the Pac-10 in all three of those categories. Last year, the UW ranked sixth in home runs (87 in 60 games) and 25th in fielding (.972). In 2003, the Huskies were second in the nation in homers (96 in 60 games) and third in fielding (.978).

INJURY BUG: More so than any season in recent years, the Huskies have been hit by the injury bug in 2005. So far, five regular players have missed time due to injuries, with three of them requiring surgery. Senior Taylor Johnson missed four games (April 15-19) due to a relatively minor hamstring injury, but returned two weeks ago. Starting catcher Matt Lane was out since injuring a knee April 8 at UC Riverside and returned to limited duty vs. Oregon State. Center fielder Nick Burnham missed four weeks with a knee injury that needed surgery, but returned to action at WSU. Freshman Matt Stevens, who had begun to work his way into a semi-regular spot in the outfield and DH, broke a bone in his hand (requiring surgery) is out for the rest of the year. Sophomore Richie Lentz slated as the Huskies' closer, had elbow surgery earlier this month after having thrown in only one game this season. He's out for the year. Finally, reserve infielder Josh Showers has been out nearly all of the season with a back injury.
