2006 Non-Conference Slate Wraps Up vs. Pacific In Stockton

THIS WEEK: The Washington baseball team (33-23 overall, 9-12 in the Pac-10 Conference) plays its final three games of the non-conference season this weekend when the Dawgs travel to Stockton, Calif., for a three-game series at Pacific, the UW's first-ever trip to UoP. There have been some recent changes to the game times. Friday's opener begins at 2:00 p.m., Saturday's game starts at 3:00 p.m. and Sunday's finale gets underway at noon. Live audio of all three games will be available at gohuskies.com. The Huskies are expected to send RHP Tim Lincecum to the mound Friday and LHP Tyler Cheney is the probable starter on Saturday. Sunday's starter is yet to be determined. The Huskies close out the 2006 season with a big three-game series vs. Washington State, May 26-28 at Husky Ballpark:

Friday, May 19: Washington at Pacific, Stockton, Calif., 2:00 p.m. — live audio at gohuskies.com

Saturday, May 20: Washington at Pacific, Stockton, Calif., 3:00 p.m. — live audio at gohuskies.com

Sunday, May 21: Washington at Pacific, Stockton, Calif., noon — live audio at gohuskies.com

SERIES HISTORY: Washington and Pacific have played one another only twice in their history, with both meetings coming in a two-game series last season at Husky Ballpark. Washington won both of those games. In the first game, the Huskies beat the Tigers, 15-4. Down 1-0 entering the fifth inning, Washington scored nine runs. Justin Baum hit two homers in the game, while four Huskies went deep, including current UW players D.J. Neyens and Curt Rindal. Tim Lincecum struck out 14 over seven innings for the win. In the second game, the Huskies out-slugged Pacific, 19-12. Baum hit another two homers for the visitors, but the Huskies tied their own school record with seven round-trippers, including two each from Zach Clem and Brent Lillibridge. This weekend's series will be the Huskies' first visit to Stockton. The Dawgs were scheduled to play at Pacific in 1998, but had their game rained out.

COACH "K": In 2004, Husky coach Ken Knutson became the winningest baseball coach in the history of the program. That accomplishment is just one item on Knutson's impressive resume. Now in his 14th season at the helm of his alma mater's baseball team, Knutson has led the Dawgs to two Pac-10 championships, four Pac-10 Northern Division titles and six NCAA Regionals. His career record now stands at 494-318-2 (.608). Before becoming the head man in 1993, Knutson served as the UW pitching coach for eight seasons. In 1985, his staff led the NCAA with a 2.80 ERA. Knutson holds a 244-108-2 (.692) record in home games. He is 203-147 (.580) in Pac-10 games. He's coached 46 first-team All-Pac-10 selections and has been named league coach of the year three times. A 1981 All-Pac-10 pitcher at the UW, he is joined by assistants Joe Ross, Donny Harrel, Tighe Dickinson and undergraduate assistant Mike Rundle.

WASHINGTON BASEBALL

MAY 17, 2006

NO-HITTER & THE CYCLE: Husky players have already pulled off two of the rarest feats in baseball this season as sophomore third baseman Matt Stevens hit for the cycle Feb. 18 and Tim Lincecum and Nick Hagadone combined for a no-hitter Mar. 12. Stevens went 5-for-6 with a single, a double, a triple and two home runs Feb. 18 at Cal State Northridge to become the first Husky to hit for the cycle since Jon Vander Griend in 1994. March 12 vs. Santa Clara, Lincecum threw six innings and Hagadone three in a 9-0 no-hitter over Santa Clara, the first no-hit game by the Huskies since April 3, 1985, when Bob Goucher and Pete Tjaarda combined for a rain-shortened, five-inning no-hitter over Seattle U. (10-0).

NO-HITTER UNCOVERS HISTORY: Both the Pac-10 Conference and UW baseball media guides have long listed only three no-hitters in Husky history, all during the 1950s. However, the incomplete statistical records for most years prior to the 1990s left plenty of room for other past no-no's that had been lost in history. Since Tim Lincecum and Nick Hagadone combined for their no-hitter March 12 vs. Santa Clara, the existence of four previously unacknowledged Husky no-hitters have come to light. First was March 22, 1969, when Gary Huson threw a seven-inning no-hitter in a 6-0 win over San Jose State in the Huskies' season-opener. On March 30, 1974, Steve Bazoski threw a seven-inning no-hitter in a 9-0 win at Portland. On April 14, 1978, Rick Anderson threw 10 innings of no-hit ball in a 0-0 tie vs. Oregon State. The game was suspended by darkness after 10 and went down in the books as a tie. Finally, on April 3, 1985, Bob Goucher (four innings) and Pete Tjaarda (one) combined for a rain-shortened, five-inning no-hitter in a 10-0 win over Seattle University.

NORTHWEST FLAVOR: As is usually the case, the Husky baseball roster is made up primarily of players from the state of Washington. This year, however, it's nearly unanimous as 32 of the 34 players on the current roster are from the state of Washington. The only non-Washingtonians on the team are freshman pitchers Bryce Mooney (Lake Oswego, Ore.) and Geoff Nichols (Portland, Ore.). For those unfamiliar with Northwest geography, both Lake Oswego and Portland are within a few miles of the border with Washington. Of the 32 in-state players, 26 are from the western part of the state (west of the Cascades).

CHASING THE RECORDS: Two veteran Huskies have taken aim at some of the Huskies' (and the Pac-10's) big single-season and career records this season: senior left fielder Zach Clem and junior right-handed pitcher Tim Lincecum. Lincecum has already knocked off several major records as he broke the school's career strikeouts record early this season (with 466, he's notched 163 more than Jeff Heaverlo's old mark of 303) and April 28 vs. Arizona, he took over the top spot in career wins with his 28th, passing Mark Smith's record of 27. One more start will give him that UW career record as well and he's already holds the career innings and walks records, as well as the single-season strikeouts mark (he actually has the top three single-season Ks totals). May 5 at Oregon State, he passed USC's Rik Currier as the Pac-10's career strikeouts record-holder. And, with a good end to the season (and possible postseason action), he could possibly become only the seventh pitcher in NCAA Division I history to record 500 career strikeouts. Clem, who already holds the less auspicious school records for single-season (24) and career (51) HBPs, has hit 20 home runs this season and 41 in his career, placing him only two behind the school record for home runs in a season (22, Chad Boudon, 2003) and only one short of the career mark of 42 (Ed Erickson, 1997-2000).
