Huskies Travel to Portland Tuesday, Then Return to Pac-10 Play vs. USC

THIS WEEK: The Washington baseball team (19-13 overall, 5-4 in the Pac-10) returns to the Pac-10 fray this weekend, but not before one more non-conference game Tuesday at Portland (14-20). Sophomore RHP Jason Erickson will start on the mound for the Huskies vs. the Pilots. Gametime is 3:00 p.m. and live audio will air on the internet at gohuskies.com. This weekend, the Huskies play host to USC (19-18 overall, 2-7 Pac-10) for a three-game series at Husky Ballpark. On Friday, the UW will give the start to junior RHP Jordan Merry. Saturday, sophomore LHP Nick Haughian will get the ball, while Sunday's starting pitcher in yet to be determined. All three USC games will air live on KKNW AM-1150. The Huskies enter the week fourth in the Pac-10 standings, trailing UCLA and Arizona (both 8-1), as well as Arizona State (10-2). Here's a look at this week's games:

Tuesday, April 17: Washington at Portland, 3:00 p.m. PDT - live audio at gohuskies.com

SERIES HISTORY: Washington holds the advantage in its all-time series with Portland, 82-43-1. That total includes a win and a loss to the Pilots this season. Feb. 27, Portland beat the Huskies, 13-11, at Husky Ballpark. March 20 at Joe Etzel Field, the Huskies won, 14-5. The Huskies are 14-28 all-time against USC, though UW head coach Ken Knutson is 13-14 against the Trojans. Last season, Washington won two of three games against USC in a series at Dedeaux Field, winning the first and third games (both by a 7-2 score) while falling in the middle game, 15-8. In the Trojans' last visit to Seattle, in 2005, USC won the first two (2-1, 5-1) before the Huskies took game three, 7-3. The only two series sweeps in modern Pac-10 history (1999-present) came in 2000 (USC swept in Seattle) and 2003 (UW swept in Seattle).

COACH "K": In 2004, Husky baseball coach Ken Knutson became the winningest baseball coach in the history of the program. That accomplishment is just one item on Knutson's impressive resume. In his 14-plus seasons at the helm of his alma mater's baseball team, Knutson has led the Dawgs to two Pac-10 championships, four Pac-10 Northern Division titles and six NCAA Regionals. He recently became the 17th Pac-10 coach to reach 500 wins and his career record now stands at 516-335-2 (.606). Before becoming the head man in 1993, Knutson served as the UW pitching coach for eight seasons. In 1985, his staff led the NCAA with a 2.80 ERA. Knutson holds a 259-114-2 (.693) record in home games. He is 210-153 (.579) in Pac-10 games. He's coached 50 first-team All-Pac-10 selections in 14 seasons, and has been named league coach of the year three times. A 1981 All-Pac-10 pitcher at the UW, he is joined by assistants Joe Ross, Donny Harrel, Tighe Dickinson and undergrad assistant Jeff James.

WASHINGTON BASEBALL

APRIL 16, 2007

KNUTSON PASSES #500: Husky head coach Ken Knutson is already the winningest baseball coach in UW history, but he reached another milestone on March 5. Knutson, who enters this week with a career record of 516-335-2, won his 500th career game on March 5 vs. Southern Utah. Entering this season, only 16 Pac-10 coaches had ever reached 500 career victories, a group that includes legends like USC's Rod Dedeaux, Arizona's Jerry Kindall and Jim Brock and Bobby Winkles of Arizona State. Knutson took over at his alma mater prior to the 1993 season and is in his 15th year in charge. Only Stanford's Mark Marquess has more seniority or more wins among current Pac-10 coaches.

HUSKIES AT SAFECO FIELD: Washington's home game against Oregon State on Friday, May 4, will be played at Safeco Field, home of the Seattle Mariners. The Huskies and Beavers will square off in the first game of a three-game Pac-10 series at 7:30 p.m. that night, and the game will air live on FSN television. Tickets are only $5 for adults and $3 for children and seniors and all UW home game ticket policies will apply (i.e., family plan, group tickets are available and UW students and Olympic Sports Pass holders will be admitted free). Washington last played on a big-league field in 1997, when the Huskies playing a tournament at the Metrodome in Minneapolis. The Huskies also used to host a tournament in the Kingdome, the Mariners' former home, and played an exhibition vs. the Mariners in the Kingdome in 1986.

TOUGH SCHEDULE: Counting those in the "others receiving votes" category, the preseason Sports Weekly/ESPN coaches' poll ranked 55 teams this season. Washington will play at least 24 games against teams that received votes in the preseason ranking. Those 24 games come against eight different teams, including six conference opponents. The Huskies will play a total of 12 games against four teams ranked in the top 25 in the preseason poll – three each against No. 14 Arizona State, No. 15 Oregon State, No. 21 UCLA and No. 25 Stanford. Well-respected baseball web site boydsworld.com ranks the Huskies' schedule as the 22nd-toughest in the nation (among 291 Division I programs), which is in the middle of the Pac-10 (fifth, to be precise). All nine Pac-10 teams' schedules rank in the top 30, according to boydsworld.com.

NORTHWEST FLAVOR: As is usually the case, the Husky baseball roster is made up primarily of players from the state of Washington. This year, 34 of the 37 players on the current roster are from the state of Washington. The only non-Washingtonians on the team are sophomore pitchers Bryce Mooney (Lake Oswego, Ore.), Geoff Nichols (Portland, Ore.) and freshman infielder Travis Nishioka (Honolulu, Hawaii). For those unfamiliar with Northwest geography, both Lake Oswego and Portland are within a few miles of the border with Washington. Of the 34 in-state players, 31 are from the western part of the state (west of the Cascades) and 17 are from King County, where the UW is located.

BROADCASTS ON THE WEB: Once again this year, gohuskies.com and the Dawg Channel hope to provide either live video (home only) or live audio of every UW baseball game, presuming that the technical needs can be met at all of the various venues. A schedule for those web-only broadcasts will be posted as it comes along, but if not every game, nearly every game will be available. For information on how to listen to/watch the games, go to gohuskies.com, and click on the "Dawg Channel" link. Also, 20 Husky games will air live on KKNW AM-1150. Those broadcasts will also be available via the internet. The next games to air on radio will be the USC series.
