Dawgs Hit Pac-10 Midway Point With Three-Game Series vs. UCLA

THIS WEEK: The Washington baseball team (24-14 overall, 4-5 in the Pac-10) will reach the midway point in the 24-game Pac-10 schedule this weekend with a three-game series vs. UCLA (20-16, 4-5). The Huskies had their game Tuesday at Portland called off due to rain, so will be well-rested after taking one of three games at No. 8 Cal last week. Pitching matchups for the weekend are as follows: UW righty Jorden Merry vs. Bruins LHP Tim Murphy in Friday's 6:30 p.m. game; Husky LHP Nick Haughian vs. UCLA RHP Charles Brewer in Saturday's 2:00 p.m. game; and UW right-hander Cam Nobles vs. Bruins southpaw Gavin Brooks in the 1:00 p.m. series finale Sunday. All three games will air live in the Seattle area on KKNW AM-1150. After the UCLA series, the Huskies will play host to the University of British Columbia next Tuesday at Husky Ballpark. The game is an exhibition for Washington, though it counts for the Thunderbirds. After the UBC game, the Dawgs travel to face USC May 2-4. Here's a look at this weekend's games:

Friday, April 25: UCLA at Washington, 6:30 p.m. - KKNW AM-1150 radio/online audio at gohuskies.com

Saturday, April 26: UCLA at Washington, 2:00 p.m. - KKNW AM-1150 radio/online audio at gohuskies.com

Sunday, April 27: UCLA at Washington, 1:00 p.m. - KKNW AM-1150 radio/online audio at gohuskies.com

SERIES HISTORY: UCLA holds a 27-16 record all-time against Washington. Last season in Los Angeles, the Bruins won the first two games, 6-5 and 11-2, before the Huskies took game three, 9-4. The last time that the Bruins visited Seattle, Washington won two of three in a closely-contested series. UW won games one (5-0) and three (4-1), while the Bruins won game two (3-2).

COACH "K": In 2004, Husky baseball coach Ken Knutson became the winningest baseball coach in the history of the program. Last season, he became only the 17th coach in Pac-10 history to reach 500 career wins. Those are just two of the many accomplishments on Knutson's impressive resume. In his 15-plus seasons at the helm of his alma mater's baseball team, Knutson has led the Dawgs to two Pac-10 championships, four Pac-10 Northern Division titles and six NCAA Regionals. His career record now stands at 550-361-2 (.604). Before becoming the head man in 1993, Knutson served as the UW pitching coach for eight seasons. In 1985, his staff led the NCAA with a 2.80 ERA. Knutson holds a 285-123-2 (.698) record in home games. He is 220-167 (.568) in Pac-10 games. He's coached 52 first-team All-Pac-10 selections in 15 seasons, and has been named league coach of the year three times. A 1981 All-Pac-10 pitcher at the UW, he is joined by assistants Joe Ross, Donny Harrel, and Tighe Dickinson.

WASHINGTON BASEBALL

APRIL 23, 2008

PACK THE PARK VS. WSU: During the Diamond Dawgs' upcoming three-game series vs. Washington State May 9-11, the Huskies are hoping to "Pack the Park," with a goal of filling the stands for all three games. The series features a number of promotions. First, all UW faculty and staff, and their immediate families, can attend for free. There will be a clinic for Junior Husky Club members following the Saturday game. On Friday, Wingzone will provide wings for the first 100 Washington students. Foam fingers will be handed out all three days, while supplies last. Saturday and Sunday are both Little League Days, where kids can join the Huskies on the field for the National Anthem and run the bases afterwards. And, Sunday is Mothers Day, with special contests and giveaways for moms all day. For tickets, visit gohuskies.com.

RUGGED PAC-10: Any team that plays in the Pac-10 can say that it has a pretty tough schedule. But this year, all the more so. In the three most widely respected college baseball polls, three different Pac-10 teams were ranked No. 1 this preseason. Collegiate Baseball magazine was first, ranking Arizona No. 1 in its preseason top 40. Then, Baseball America issued its preseason top 25 with UCLA holding the No. 1 spot, just in front of Arizona. Then, the preseason USA Today/ESPN coaches' poll was released with Arizona State voted as the preseason No. 1 team. Then, add in the fact that Oregon State is the two-time defending national champion and isn't even one of those three No. 1 teams and the Pac-10 is clearly a challenge this season.

WASHINGTON'S TEAM: The Husky baseball roster has always been dominated by in-state players, as most college baseball rosters are. The squad consistently has about 90 percent of players from the state of Washington. This year's squad, however, represents a first in the Ken Knutson era as all 38 players on the roster played their high school ball in Washington. In fact, the majority of players (20 out of 38) attended high school in King County, the county in which the UW is located, and 32 of 38 are from either King County or the two counties that abut King County from the south and north (Pierce and Snohomish, respectively). In other words, 32 of 38 players on this year's team come from within about a 40-mile radius of the UW's Seattle campus.

BROADCASTS ON THE WEB: Once again this year, gohuskies.com and the Dawg Channel hope to provide either live video (home only) or live audio of every UW baseball game, presuming that the technical needs can be met at all of the various venues. A schedule for those web-only broadcasts will be posted as it comes along, but if not every game, nearly every game will be available. For information on how to listen to/watch the games, go to gohuskies.com, and click on the "Dawg Channel" link. Also, 20 Husky games will air live on KKNW AM-1150. Those broadcasts will also be available via the internet. The next radio broadcasts are this weekend vs. UCLA.
