Dawgs Begin Stretch of Road Games With Trips To Portland and Berkeley

THIS WEEK: The Washington baseball team (17-13 overall, 3-3 in the Pac-10) begins a road-heavy stretch of games with four straight away from Seattle this week. First up is a trip to Portland on Wed., April 14 for a 3:00 p.m. non-conference game vs. Portland (20-8 overall, 5-1 in the WCC). Washington will give the ball to junior RHP Forrest Snow against the Pilots. From there, the Huskies head to Berkeley for a three-game set vs. the red-hot California Golden Bears (20-10, 6-3), who have won eight straight, including sweeps of Arizona and USC the last two weekends. All three games at Cal will air live on KKNW AM-1150 radio. Friday's first pitch is scheduled for 2:30 p.m. and Saturday and Sunday's games both get underway at 1:00 p.m. The UW will start junior LHP Geoff Brown on Friday and sophomore RHP Andrew Kittredge on Saturday. Sunday's starter has yet to be determined. Following the Cal series, the Huskies host Portland on Tuesday, April 20 before heading south to face top-ranked Arizona State April 23-25 in a conference series in Tempe. Here's a look at this week's action:

COACH MEGGS: Lindsay Meggs was named the Huskies' new head coach in July of 2009, just the third different UW head coach in 34 years. Meggs came to the UW after having spent the last three seasons at Indiana State and the 13 prior to that at Chico State, where he won NCAA Division II national championships in 1997 and 1999. He helped Chico to the D-II College World Series seven times and won the league eight times. At Indiana State, he was named Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year in 2009 after guiding the Sycamores to a second-place finish, their highest since 1998. Meggs currently boasts a 632-320-4 record over 16-plus seasons as a four-year college head coach. He'd previously served as head coach at Long Beach City College and Oxnard College. Born in San Jose and a graduate of Saratoga (Calif.) High, Meggs played four seasons as the starting third baseman at UCLA. He was drafted by the Brewers in 1983, and then again by the Royals after his senior year in 1984. Meggs is joined by assistant coaches Dave Nakama, Greg Moore and Kevin Ticen.

WASHINGTON BASEBALL

APRIL 13, 2010

SERIES HISTORY: Washington holds an 88-44-1 record all-time against Portland. Last season, the Huskies and Pilots played only twice, with no meetings at Joe Etzel Field. The Huskies beat Portland, 5-2, on an eighth-inning homer from Pierce Rankin in a game played at PGE Park in Portland. Later in the season, Jake Rife went 4-for-4 with a homer in a 6-5 win over the Pilots. California leads the all-time series against Washington, 32-28. Last season, the Huskies swept a three-game series in Seattle, winning by scores of 9-8, 6-2 and 7-2. In the first game, Kyle Conley belted two homers, including a grand slam, but the UW still needed to score two in the eighth to go back in front. In game two, Jason Erickson went eight innings for the win. And in the finale, Conley capped a hot weekend with two doubles among his three hits. The last time that UW traveled to Berkeley, in 2008, Cal won two out of the three games.

HUSKIES BACK AT SAFECO FIELD: Washington will return to Safeco Field for the fourth consecutive season this year when the Huskies host Stanford in a 6:30 p.m. game on Saturday, May 1. Earlier that day, at 12:10 p.m., the Mariners play host to the Texas Rangers at Safeco. Fans who show a ticket stub from the M's game can redeem it for a discounted $5 ticket to the Husky game. Last season, the Huskies played two games at Safeco. A crowd of 3,675 saw a 3-1 Oregon State win and there were 4,296 on hand for a 6-4 Arizona State victory later in the year. Three seasons ago, the Huskies beat No. 8 OSU, 6-2, in their first-ever game at Safeco. Attendance was 10,421, at the time a league record for a conference game. In 2008, the Huskies edged Arizona, 1-0, on a two-hit, 15-strikeout shutout by Nick Haughian as 5,187 fans watched on. Tickets are $8 and UW students are admitted free.

WASHINGTON'S TEAM: The Husky baseball roster has always been dominated by in-state players, as most college baseball rosters are. The squad consistently has about 90 percent of players from the state of Washington, and the last two years, it was 100 percent. This year, 31 of the team's 33 players prepped in the state of Washington. The two out-of-staters are Miles Kizer (Phoenix, Ariz.) and Joe Meggs (Terre Haute, Ind.). Of the 31 players from the Evergreen State, 30 come from west of the Cascade Mountains. Fifteen players come from King County, the county in which the UW is located, and 24 of 30 come from King, Pierce and Snohomish counties, which, essentially, form the Seattle metropolitan area.
