Huskies Return To Safeco For One of Three Vs. No. 21 Stanford

THIS WEEK: The Washington baseball team (21-19 overall, 5-7 in the Pac-10) continues its current nine-game homestand with a three-game, Pac-10 series vs. 21st-ranked Stanford (21-14 overall, 10-5 in the Pac-10) this weekend. The Huskies split a pair of midweek games vs. Gonzaga, losing 11-1 on Tuesday before winning 12-4 on Wednesday. Stanford had an eight-game win streak broken in 9-3 loss over Santa Clara on Monday. The series features what has become an annual tradition for the Dawgs: a game at Safeco Field, home of the Seattle Mariners. First, however, the series gets underway Saturday with a 6:00 p.m. game at Husky Ballpark on the UW campus. Then on Saturday, the series moves to downtown Seattle for a 6:30 game at Safeco. Earlier that day, the Mariners take on Texas in a 12:00 p.m. game. The series wraps up with a 12:00 p.m. game Sunday at Husky Ballpark (NOTE: the start time of Sunday's game was changed this week to better accommodate Stanford's travel plans). The UW will start junior LHP Geoff Brown on Friday and sophomore RHP Andrew Kittredge on Saturday. Sunday's starter has yet to be determined. Saturday's game vs. Stanford will air live on KKNW AM-1150 radio. Fans can catch live video of the other two games on the "Dawg Channel" at gohuskies.com. The homestand continues with four more games the following week, one vs. SeattleU and three vs. UCLA. Here's a look at this week's action:

COACH MEGGS: Lindsay Meggs was named the Huskies' new head coach in July of 2009, just the third different UW head coach in 34 years. Meggs came to the UW after having spent the last three seasons at Indiana State and the 13 prior to that at Chico State, where he won NCAA Division II national championships in 1997 and 1999. He helped Chico to the D-II College World Series seven times and won the league eight times. At Indiana State, he was named Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year in 2009 after guiding the Sycamores to a second-place finish, their highest since 1998. Meggs currently boasts a 636-326-4 record over 16-plus seasons as a four-year college head coach. He'd previously served as head coach at Long Beach City College and Oxnard College. Born in San Jose and a graduate of Saratoga (Calif.) High, Meggs played four seasons as the starting third baseman at UCLA. He was drafted by the Brewers in 1983, and then again by the Royals after his senior year in 1984. Meggs is joined by assistant coaches Dave Nakama, Greg Moore and Kevin Ticen.

WASHINGTON BASEBALL

APRIL 29, 2010

SERIES HISTORY: Stanford boasts a 44-17 all-time series record over Washington, though prior to 1996, the Cardinal were 17-2 all-time vs. the UW. Last year, the Cardinal won two of three in Palo Alto winning games one (13-3) and three (11-0). Washington won the second game, 9-7, on a ninth-inning homer from Kyle Conley.

HUSKIES BACK AT SAFECO FIELD: Washington will return to Safeco Field for the fourth consecutive season this year when the Huskies host Stanford in a 6:30 p.m. game on Saturday, May 1. Earlier that day, at 12:10 p.m., the Mariners play host to the Texas Rangers at Safeco. Fans who show a ticket stub from the M's game can redeem it for a discounted $5 ticket to the Husky game. Last season, the Huskies played two games at Safeco. A crowd of 3,675 saw a 3-1 Oregon State win and there were 4,296 on hand for a 6-4 Arizona State victory later in the year. Three seasons ago, the Huskies beat No. 8 OSU, 6-2, in their first-ever game at Safeco. Attendance was 10,421, at the time a league record for a conference game. In 2008, the Huskies edged Arizona, 1-0, on a two-hit, 15-strikeout shutout by Nick Haughian as 5,187 fans watched on. Tickets are $8 and UW students are admitted free.

WASHINGTON'S TEAM: The Husky baseball roster has always been dominated by in-state players, as most college baseball rosters are. The squad consistently has about 90 percent of players from the state of Washington, and the last two years, it was 100 percent. This year, 31 of the team's 33 players prepped in the state of Washington. The two out-of-staters are Miles Kizer (Phoenix, Ariz.) and Joe Meggs (Terre Haute, Ind.). Of the 31 players from the Evergreen State, 30 come from west of the Cascade Mountains. Fifteen players come from King County, the county in which the UW is located, and 24 of 30 come from King, Pierce and Snohomish counties, which, essentially, form the Seattle metropolitan area.
