Huskies Return To Safeco Field For First Of Three Against UCLA

THIS WEEKEND: The red-hot Washington baseball team (26-18 overall, 11-10 in the Pac-12) makes its annual visit to Safeco Field, home of the Seattle Mariners, this Friday to open a three-game series vs. UCLA (31-12, 12-9). The Huskies return from a seven-game road trip on which they won six games. The UW has won seven of its last eight overall and has (importantly when it comes to postseason hopes) moved over .500 in Pac-12 play after sweeping USC last weekend in Los Angeles. The Bruins, who are ranked No. 11 by both Baseball America and the coaches, took two of three from then-No. 13 Purdue last weekend. Friday night's game at Safeco Field, which marks the Huskies' seventh appearance there, gets underway at 6:00 p.m. PT. Saturday (2:00 p.m.) and Sunday (1:00 p.m.), games will be played at Husky Ballpark. Fans can follow live stats and watch live video (free) at gohuskies.com. The easiest way to find the links is to go to the baseball schedule page at gohuskies.com and click on that day's game for the links. The UW pitching rotation remains in tact from the past four weekends. Washington will send junior right-hander Aaron West to the mound Friday at Safeco. Saturday, freshman righty Tyler Davis starts for the Huskies, while sophomore RHP Jeff Brigham gets the ball on Sunday. The Huskies host Portland next Wednesday before traveling to face No. 19 Arizona State next weekend. Here's a look at this weekend's games:

COACH MEGGS: Lindsay Meggs is in his third season as head coach at Washington. This spring, one of his chief accomplishments has come to fruition with the opening of the new baseball team building at Husky Ballpark – a clubhouse, coaches' offices, training room, equipment room and donor area overlooking the field. Meggs came to the UW after having spent the previous three seasons at Indiana State and the 13 prior to that at Chico State, where he won NCAA Division II national championships in 1997 and 1999. He helped Chico to the D-II College World Series seven times and won the league eight times. At Indiana State, he was named Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year in 2009 after guiding the Sycamores to a second-place finish, their highest since 1998. Currently, he boasts a 686-390-4 record over 18 seasons as a four-year college head coach. He'd previously served as head coach at Long Beach City College and Oxnard College. Born in San Jose and a graduate of Saratoga (Calif.) High, Meggs played four seasons as the starting third baseman at UCLA. He was drafted by the Brewers in 1983, and then again by the Royals after his senior year in 1984. Meggs is joined by assistant coaches Dave Nakama, Dave Dangler and Jordon Twohig.
