Dawgs Take On Portland Before Heading To ASU For Three Games

THIS WEEK: The Washington baseball team (26-21 overall, 11-13 in the Pac-12) heads into the final two weeks of the regular season with eight games still on the schedule. This week, the Huskies play host to Portland (25-18) Wednesday at 5:00 p.m. in a game that was only recently added to the schedule. This weekend, the UW travels to play Arizona State (32-17, 14-10) in a three-game series in Tempe. The Sun Devils are ranked No. 18 in this week's Baseball America top 25. Game times this weekend are 6:30 p.m. PT both Friday and Saturday and 12:30 p.m. Sunday. Fans can watch live video of the Portland game and follow live stats of all four games via links from gohuskies.com. Games one and three from ASU will also be streamed on foxportsarizona.com. The easiest way to find the links is to go to the baseball schedule page at gohuskies.com and click on that day's game for the links. Junior right-hander Aaron West will start on the mound for the UW vs. Portland. The pitching rotation for the coming weekend at ASU has yet to be determined. Next week, the UW plays Tuesday at SeattleU (at Bannerwood Park in Bellevue) before wrapping up the regular season vs. Washington State May 25-27 at Husky Ballpark. On Monday, May 28, the NCAA will announce the 64-team field for the 2012 tournament. Here's a look at this week's games:

Tuesday, May 16: Portland at Washington, 5:00 p.m. PT – live stats & video at gohuskies.com

COACH MEGGS: Lindsay Meggs is in his third season as head coach at Washington. This spring, one of his chief accomplishments has come to fruition with the opening of the new baseball team building at Husky Ballpark – a clubhouse, coaches' offices, training room, equipment room and donor area overlooking the field. Meggs came to the UW after having spent the previous three seasons at Indiana State and the 13 prior to that at Chico State, where he won NCAA Division II national championships in 1997 and 1999. He helped Chico to the D-II College World Series seven times and won the league eight times. At Indiana State, he was named Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year in 2009 after guiding the Sycamores to a second-place finish, their highest since 1998. Currently, he boasts a 686-393-4 record over 18 seasons as a four-year college head coach. He'd previously served as head coach at Long Beach City College and Oxnard College. Born in San Jose and a graduate of Saratoga (Calif.) High, Meggs played four seasons as the starting third baseman at UCLA. He was drafted by the Brewers in 1983, and then again by the Royals after his senior year in 1984. Meggs is joined by assistant coaches Dave Nakama, Dave Dangler and Jordon Twohig.
