Huskies Set To Host Two Ranked Teams; No. 7 L-C State, No. 2 Stanford Up Next

COMING UP: The Washington baseball team (15-17-1 overall, 3-3/4th place in the Pac-10) closes out a nine-game homestand this week with four games at Husky Ballpark. Tuesday night at 6:30 p.m., the Dawgs play host to small-college powerhouse Lewis-Clark State (24-10), currently ranked No. 7 in the NAIA. The game will air live on KKNW AM-1150 and on www.newschannel1150.com. Friday through Sunday, Washington plays host to No. 2 Stanford (25-8, 4-2 Pac-10) in a three-game conference series. Friday's series opener starts at 6:30 p.m. while Saturday and Sunday's game will begin at 1:00 p.m. None of the three will air on radio in Seattle, but Stanford's radio broadcast will air on www.gohuskies.com (courtesy of KSZU radio). Here's a rundown of this week's slate, with probable UW starters:

Tuesday, April 16 — Lewis-Clark State at Washington, Husky Ballpark, 6:30 p.m. — LHP Brian Carter (0-0, 0.96)

Friday, April 19 — Stanford at Washington, Husky Ballpark, 6:30 p.m. — RHP Shawn Kohn (6-2, 3.13)

Saturday, April 20 — Stanford at Washington, Husky Ballpark, 1:00 p.m. — RHP Sean White (3-2, 6.07)

Sunday, April 21 — Stanford at Washington, Husky Ballpark, 1:00 p.m. — RHP Clay Johnson (1-1, 8.65)

SERIES HISTORY: No surprise that the series between UW and Lewis-Clark State is a tight one, with each team having won 14 of the 28 games played. The series has featured numerous close games in recent years, including both of last year's meetings. Last April 24, the Warriors nipped the UW, 5-4, with Mike Madrid driving in the tying run in the seventh. The following day, the Warriors got a two-out, pinch-hit homer in the top of the ninth from Jody Knowlton to take a 6-5 lead, but UW freshman catcher Ben Johnson belted his first career HR with two down and one on in the bottom of the ninth to win, 7-6. Stanford holds a 28-9 series advantage over the Huskies, though the UW beat the Cardinal, two games to one in 1997 and two games to none in 1998, in the Pac-10 Championship series. Last year, the Cardinal swept a three-game league series in Palo Alto.

COACH "K" : In nine seasons as the head coach of his alma mater, Ken Knutson has led the Dawgs to two Pac-10 championships, four Pac-10 Northern Division titles, two second-place finishes and three NCAA Regionals. His career overall record stands at 329-224-1 (.595). With those 329 wins, he is the second-winningest coach in UW history, trailing only Bob MacDonald (422). Before becoming the Husky head man in 1993, Knutson served as the Husky pitching coach for eight seasons. In 1985, his UW pitching staff led the nation with a 2.80 ERA. Knutson holds a 159-71-1 (.690) record in home games. He is 140-100 (.583) in conference games. Knutson has coached 35 first-team All-Pac-10 selections in nine seasons, and has been named league coach of the year three times. A 1981 All-Pac-10 left-handed pitcher at the UW, he is joined by assistant coaches Joe Ross, Travis Jewett, and Gregg Swenson and undergraduate assistants Daniel Jahn and Duggan Moran.

WASHINGTON BASEBALL

APRIL 16, 2002

AMONG THE LEADERS: Several Husky players enter the week among the top of several various Pac-10 statistical rankings entering the week, mostly on the offensive side of things. Junior SS Tila Reynolds is third in the league in batting with his .395 average and also ranks in the top four in five other offensive categories: third in triples, second in steals, first in hit by pitch, fourth in on-base pct., and second in hits. Junior OF Jay Garthwaite leads the Pac-10 in RBI and is sixth in slugging, third in triples, fourth in total bases and fourth in home runs. Junior OF Tyler Davidson is eighth in steals and ninth in runs. The other three Huskies that rank in the hitting categories are sophomore 2B Greg Isaacson, who's seventh in sacrifice hits despite having played in only 14 games while senior 3B Michael Done is fourth in hit by pitches and eighth in home runs, along with junior DH/1B Bryan Johnson. Senior RHP Shawn Kohn is second in the league in called strikeouts, third in victories, seventh in opponent batting average and seventh in ERA while junior closer Tyler Shepp's four saves ranks third in the conference.

VETERAN SQUAD: After fielding rather youthful squads in each of the last two seasons, the 2002 Husky team is all grown up. Offensively, Washington returns players that made a total of 378 individual starts last year, 80.8 percent of the possible total of 468 (nine players times 52 games). Returning hitters accounted for 429 of last seasons' 531 total hits (also 80.8 percent) and 39 of the Huskies' 46 home runs (84.8 percent). On the mound, returning pitchers accounted for 359.2 of the Huskies' 455.2 innings pitched last year (78.9 percent) and started 44 of last season's 52 games (84.6 percent). In all, current members of the Washington baseball team had earned a total of 43 varsity letters and had started a total of 742 college games prior to the start of the 2002 season.

PRESEASON ACCOLADES: College baseball's preseason publications predicted a solid season for the 2002 Huskies. Baseball America ranked the Dawgs No. 24 in their preseason issue and counted the Huskies among the five Pac-10 teams it predicts will make it into the NCAA tournament. Shortstop Tila Reynolds was tabbed the preseason All-Pac-10 shortstop and was ranked the best defensive SS in the league. RHP Shawn Kohn was listed as the league's No. 1 control pitcher. Baseball America also listed Reynolds as the No. 48 junior prospect in the country and 1B Kyle Larsen as the nation's No. 42 freshman prospect. Neither Collegiate Baseball nor USA Today Baseball Weekly ranked the Huskies in the preseason, though the Huskies were among those receiving votes in USA Today's preseason coaches' poll (ranked No. 38, counting past the 25 ranked teams).
