Huskies Hope To Keep Postseason Hopes Alive vs. Gonzaga, Oregon State

COMING UP: The Washington baseball team (11-7 in the Pac-10, 25-22-1 overall), winner of nine of its last 12 games, takes on Gonzaga in the final two non-league games of the season Tuesday in a 3:00 p.m. doubleheader before travelling to face Pac-10 foe Oregon State in a three-game series at Corvallis. The second-place Huskies, who picked up five votes in this week's USA Today coaches' poll, fell twice in three games at first-place USC last weekend, but remain in a second-placed tie with Stanford, two games behind USC, one ahead of Arizona State and two in front of Oregon State. Friday night's game time is 5:00 p.m., Saturday and Sunday, game time is 1:00 p.m. The second Gonzaga game is the only one of these that will air on radio (KKNW AM-1150), but the OSU broadcast of those games can be heard on www.osubeavers.com. Here's a rundown of this week's slate, with probable UW starting pitchers for the OSU games:

Tuesday, May 14 — Gonzaga at Washington, Husky Ballpark (doubleheader), 3:00 p.m.

Friday, May 17 — Washington at Oregon State, Goss Stadium, 6:00 p.m. — RHP Shawn Kohn (9-4, 3.10)

Saturday, May 18 — Washington at Oregon State, Goss Stadium, 1:00 p.m. — RHP Sean White (4-2, 5.01)

Sunday, May 19 — Washington at Oregon State, Goss Stadium, 1:00 p.m. — RHP Clay Johnson (2-1, 7.06)

SERIES HISTORY: The Huskies lead the all-time series vs. Gonzaga, 57-47, but lost two earlier meetings vs. the Zags this season. April 2, the Zags scored two in the ninth on a Jeff Culpepper single to win, 8-6 as the Huskies left the bases loaded in the bottom of the ninth. The following day, the Zags got two in the seventh and three in the eighth to win, 7-5. Washington is 166-206-1 all-time against Oregon State after taking three of five games from the Beavers last year. The teams split two non-league games in Corvallis (W, 10-7 and L, 17-3) before the Dawgs took two of three in a Pac-10 series in Seattle. The Huskies won games one and three (11-4 and 3-1) and fell in game two, 9-1.

COACH "K": In nine seasons as the head coach of his alma mater, Ken Knutson has led the Dawgs to two Pac-10 championships, four Pac-10 Northern Division titles, two second-place finishes and three NCAA Regionals. His career overall record stands at 339-229-1 (.597). With those 339 wins, he is the second-winningest coach in UW history, trailing only Bob MacDonald (422). Before becoming the Husky head man in 1993, Knutson served as the Husky pitching coach for eight seasons. In 1985, his UW pitching staff led the nation with a 2.80 ERA. Knutson holds a 165-74-1 (.688) record in home games. He is 148-104 (.587) in conference games. Knutson has coached 35 first-team All-Pac-10 selections in nine seasons, and has been named league coach of the year three times. A 1981 All-Pac-10 left-handed pitcher at the UW, he is joined by assistant coaches Joe Ross, Travis Jewett, and Gregg Swenson and undergraduate assistants Daniel Jahn and Duggan Moran.

WASHINGTON BASEBALL

MAY 14, 2002

LAST WEEKEND: Washington travelled to USC and took one of three games from the first-place Trojans. USC ace Anthony Reyes led the Trojans to a 4-1 win Friday night, allowing a run on six hits and eight strikeouts in a season-high eight-innings. Kyle Larsen drove in the lone UW run as Shawn Kohn suffered the loss in a complete game. Saturday, Tyler Davidson became the first Husky on record ever to hit three home runs in a game in a 9-3 Washington win. Davidson homered to all three fields as Sean White worked eight and one-third for the victory. Sunday, the Huskies trailed 6-2, but rallied back to 6-6 before USC scored two in the eighth to win, 8-6. Michael Done and John Otness both homered for the Huskies while David Dowling threw five solid innings in relief of sore-armed starter Clay Johnson.

TURNING IT AROUND?: There is little debate that the Husky season hit its low point in an error-filled three-game sweep at Missouri April 5-7, but since hitting bottom, the Huskies have played so well that they're a solid threat to make the NCAA tournament. Those three losses were the last three of a seven-game losing streak and the Huskies have won 13 of 20 since then. In those 20 games, the Huskies' team ERA is a very respectable 4.48 and Husky pitchers have walked only 41 (opponents have walked 78) while striking out 109 in 181.0 innings of work. Defensively, the improvement is even more stark as the Huskies have committed only 15 errors over the 20 games, good for a very solid .981 fielding percentage. The UW's weekend starting trio of Shawn Kohn, Sean White and Clay Johnson have combined for 113.2 innings in 16 starts during that time, allowing 53 earned runs and only 23 walks, good for a 4.20 ERA.

PRESEASON ACCOLADES: College baseball's preseason publications predicted a solid season for the 2002 Huskies. Baseball America ranked the Dawgs No. 24 in their preseason issue and counted the Huskies among the five Pac-10 teams it predicts will make it into the NCAA tournament. Shortstop Tila Reynolds was tabbed the preseason All-Pac-10 shortstop and was ranked the best defensive SS in the league. RHP Shawn Kohn was listed as the league's No. 1 control pitcher. Baseball America also listed Reynolds as the No. 48 junior prospect in the country and 1B Kyle Larsen as the nation's No. 42 freshman prospect. Neither Collegiate Baseball nor USA Today Baseball Weekly ranked the Huskies in the preseason, though the Huskies were among those receiving votes in USA Today's preseason coaches' poll (ranked No. 38, counting past the 25 ranked teams).
