Favorite Television Show: Friends

Favorite Movie: Dumb and Dumber

Favorite Book: Five Point Play

I came to Washington because: of the academics

I wear No. 11 because: My father wore it as a Husky football player.

Most famous person I ever met: Arnold Schwezenegger and Tiger Woods

Best advice I have ever been given: Do unto others as you would have others do unto you.

20 years from now I'll tell my kids: I graduated from UW and played for Coach Romar.

My childhood sports heroes were: Michael Jordan, Jerry Rice

When I was a kid, my favorite toy was: Ninja Turtles

The toughest play I ever played against: LeBron James and J.J. Reddick

If I could add one team to the schedule: Duke

I always wanted an autograph from: Jerry Rice

My greatest sports memory: Winning the KingCo 3A championship my junior year.

My favorite food: Steak

My advice to kids: Always work hard toward your goals.

University of Washington

Walk-on from outstanding high school program whose outside shooting ability could earn him playing time ... Father, Bob Burmeister, lettered in 1969 and 1970 as a defensive back on the Husky football team.

Mercer Island High School

Averaged 14.7 points, 5.1 rebounds and 3.0 assists per game as a senior in 2003, helping the team to a third-place finish in at the KingCo 3A tournament ... The Islanders lost in the semifinals to the eventual state champion Rainier Beach ... Named to the 2002 and 2003 Class 3A all-state tournament teams ... Amassed 466 points his junior year to lead the KingCo Conference ... Named to the King County Journal's All-Eastside team in 2002 and 2003 ... Named to the first-team All-KingCo 3A squad his final two years ... Played for legendary Mercer Island coach Ed Pepple ... Mercer Island won the league title his sophomore and junior seasons ... Averaged 17.1 points per game as a junior and 10.7 his sophomore season ... Also lettered in football and track & field.

Coach Romar on Brandon Burmeister

"Brandon is a very good shooter. He comes from a good program that is well coached at Mercer Island with Ed Pepple. He is excited about being here and we are excited about having him."

Honors & Highlights

- Averaged 14 points and eight rebounds as a senior in 2000 at Olympia (Wash.) High School.

Favorite Television Show: Robot Wars

Favorite Movie: Dumb & Dumber

Favorite Book: Lord of the Rings / Terry Brooks

I came to Washington because: It is close to home and the most beautiful school in the West

Most famous person I ever met: Magic Johnson

My childhood hero was: Shawn Bradley

My favorite toy as a child: Rainbow Brite

Pregame ritual: Playing Dominoes

20 years from now I will tell my kids: I played basketball with Doug Wrenn

My greatest sports memory: Watching my high school, Olympia beat Mercer Island to go to the State finals in 98-99

University of Washington

Second-year squad member who joined the team midway through the 2002 campaign ... Originally joined the team as a walk-on, but was awarded a scholarship by Coach Romar during the summer of 2002 ... The tallest member of the team who could battle for playing time in the post ... Possesses excellent hands and could develop into a fine center under the tutelage of assistant coach Russ Schoene, a former NBA veteran ... Father, Dan Devoe, was a letterman at Ricks College and one of the legendary “Three Trees” at Olympia (Wash.) High School during the 1960s. 2002-03 (RS-Freshman) — Played six games ... Saw his first collegiate game action against Florida International Dec. 21) and grabbed one rebound in three minutes ... Scored two points at Oregon State (Jan. 25) ... Collected two rebounds against Houston (Dec. 23). 2001-02 (Red-Shirt) — Utilized a red-shirt campaign ... Began practicing with the team Dec. 31, but did not participate in any games ... Did not travel, but suited up for home games beginning Jan. 10 against Arizona State.

Olympia High School

Averaged 14 points and eight rebounds per game as a senior in 2000 at Olympia (Wash.) High School ... Played in the same town and high school league as current UCLA freshman center Michael Fey (Capital High School) ... Attended the Air Force Preparatory Academy in Colorado Springs, Colo. for one semester before beginning a Mormon mission ... Served a brief Mormon mission in Pennsylvania that was cut short by a back injury that forced him to return to Olympia during the fall of 2001 ... His availability was made known to the UW coaching staff in December of 2001 and he was accepted later that month into UW for the winter quarter ... Prep teammates Kelley Golot (Northern Arizona) and Mark Bigelow (BYU) are also playing Division I basketball.

Coach Romar on Ben Devoe

“It took Ben an entire year to get himself in the type of condition that will allow him to now begin to improve as a basketball player. I would hope at that point, Ben would be in a situation where we could put him in a game situation and he could handle it. We are optimistic that he will be able to do that. The first thing you notice is that great size. He’s also got soft hands. He will absolutely benefit from working with Coach (Russ) Schoene.”

A first-team all-state selection in 2003 ... Completed his prep career by scoring in double figures during each of his final 56 games ... The KingCo Conference 3A Player of the Year award recipient the last two seasons ... Led the Indians to their first KingCo championship in 2003 ... Voted to the 2003 state tournament team after leading all players with 99 points and 40 rebounds in four games ... He averaged 24.8 points and 10.0 rebounds in the 2003 state tournament.

Coach Romar on Hans Gasser

"Hans is a phenomenal shooter at 6-foot-9. He can really step out and shoot the basketball. But we don't want to limit him to just a shooter. He has got an offensive mindset. He has got a knack of finding a way to put the ball in the basket. He can also put the ball on the floor and get his shots. He can score points. His game is inside and out."

Poly finished as the Southern California Regional runner-up to eventual state champion Westchester ... Named to the 10-man California all-state team selected by Cal-Hi Sports ... Rated the No. 10 prep small forward in the West by Prep West Hoops ... A top-100 national prospect and one of the top 25 players on the west coast according to several recruiting services ... Ranked No. 96 in the Student Sports Hot 100 and No. 100 by Hoop Scoop ... Attended Dominguez High School in Compton, Calif. the previous three years where he played alongside Tyson Chandler who was the second selection in the 2001 NBA Draft ... As a junior in 2001, averaged 16 points, five rebounds, three assists and three steals, helping Dominguez to a 31-4 record and its third consecutive division II state championship. Dominguez also won the title in 1999 and the 2000 state championship squad was ranked No. 1 nationally in USA Today.

Coach Romar on Bobby Jones

"Bobby is probably going to be our most improved player this year. He has worked on his skills, his ball handling and his shot. He has gotten stronger and is going to step up this year. He will have a big year. He is probably our best perimeter defender. He is a stellar defensive player, a good athlete and an unselfish team guy. He is the model of the type of player that we want here at the University of Washington in terms of his unselfish team attitude, mental toughness and his academic standing."
