Favorite Television Show: Simpsons & Martin

Favorite Movie: Friday & New Jack City

Favorite Book: Liars Game & Cheaters

I came to Washington because: I knew coach Romar was a good coach and person, plus I didn't want to leave the West Coast

I wear No. 15 because: It adds up to six, my favorite number that you can't get in college

Most famous person I ever met: Flo-Jo

This actor would play me in a movie: Chris Tucker

Favorite meal: Pizza, Apple Sauce, Twizzlers

When I was a kid, my favorite toy was: The original Nintendo

My toughest opponent: Paul Pierce

If I could add one team to the schedule: Duke

I always wanted an autograph from: J-Lo

My greatest sports memory: Winning the State Championship without Tyson Chandler

My superstitions: If I play a great game, I wear the same socks with new ones

University of Washington

Two-year letterman ... Brings a tremendous all-around game as an excellent defender and rebounder ... Coach Lorenzo Romar's first recruit at Washington ... Signed a letter of intent on May 6, 2002 ... Former prep teammate at Dominguez (Calif.) High School of Tyson Chandler, the No. 2 selection in the 2001 NBA Draft. 2003-04 (Sophomore) — Played all 31 games, starting 25 of them ... One of five Huskies to average double figures with an 11.2-point scoring average ... Scored a career-high 22 points on 10-of-13 shooting in UW's 77-72 loss at 13th-ranked North Carolina State (Feb. 22) ... Registered two double-doubles ... Tallied 11 points and 10 rebounds at Houston (Dec. 20) ... Had 14 points and 12 rebounds against USC (Jan. 8) ... Helped the Huskies to a 19-12 record and their first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1999 ... The 12-6 Pac-10 record and second-place conference finish were UW's best since 1986. 2002-03 (Freshman) — Played all 27 games, starting the final 15 outings of the season ... Registered a double-double against second-ranked Arizona (Feb. 6) with 10 points and 11 rebounds ... Scored the game-winning basket at home against USC (Jan. 4) on a rebound and put-back with 0:03 remaining ... Registered double-figure points on five occasions ... Led all UW rebounders seven times ... Ranked second on the team with 4.1 rebounds per game, the leading average among returning UW players ... Blocked 12 shots, tying him for ninth among all-time Husky freshmen.

Long Beach Poly High School

Averaged 19 points and nine rebounds per game as a senior in 2002, helping the Jackrabbits to a 30-4 record ... Poly finished as the Southern California Regional runner-up to eventual state champion Westchester ... Named to the 10-man California all-state team selected by Cal-Hi Sports ... Rated the No. 10 prep small forward in the West by Prep West Hoops ... A top-100 national prospect and one of the top 25 players on the west coast according to several recruiting services ... Ranked No. 96 in the Student Sports Hot 100 and No. 100 by Hoop Scoop ... Attended Dominguez High School in Compton, Calif. the previous three years where he played alongside Tyson Chandler who was the second selection in the 2001 NBA Draft ... As a junior in 2001, averaged 16 points, five rebounds, three assists and three steals, helping Dominguez to a 31-4 record and its third consecutive division II state championship. Dominguez also won the title in 1999 and the 2000 state championship squad was ranked No. 1 nationally in USA Today.

Coach Romar on Bobby Jones

"With the way we have played he has probably played out of position. He's done a remarkable job and proved to be a matchup problem for opponents because of his speed and quickness. I think he's one of the best defensive players in the country. He's very, very versatile. You can't leave Bobby Jones on the bench very long. He needs to find a way to avoid foul trouble because it hurts us when he is not in the game. He is the model of the type of player that we want here at the University of Washington in terms of his unselfish team attitude, mental toughness and his academic standing."

I always wanted an autograph from: Marvin Gaye

My greatest sports memory: Playing my senior year with a dislocated shoulder

Person I would most like to meet: Dalai Lama

University of Washington

One-year letterman ... Should challenge for increased playing time this season ... Walk-on who joined the team during the fall of 2003 after participating with the Husky rowing team last year ... Left the rowing team in December of 2002 after training with the crew for three months ... A fine athlete who was a competitive snow skier for 10 years, until age 15 ... Competed at the Junior Olympic downhill skiing event at age 13 ... Has a junior standing in school, but has three years of eligibility remaining. 2003-04 (Sophomore) — Played four games, including two Pac-10 contests ... Scored a basket on an impressive drive to the basketball late in UW's win at Arizona State (Feb. 28) ... Made one free throw against Columbia (Dec. 30) ... Helped the Huskies to a 19-12 record and their first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1999 ... The 12-6 Pac-10 record and second-place conference finish were UW's best since 1986. 2002-03 (Freshman) — Attended school at UW, but was not a member of the basketball team ... Participated during the fall as a walk-on with the Husky rowing team.

Sam Barlow High School

Averaged 13 points and five assists during his senior season on his way to team Most Valuable Player honors ... A second-team all-league honoree in the Mt. Hood Conference ... Team took eighth place in the state tournament his junior year.

Coach Romar on Zane Potter

"Zane is interesting. He may have the biggest upside of any one of our walk-ons. That's because he has not really played a whole lot of basketball at this level. You can see how he improved throughout the year. He's gotten stronger and put on about 10 or 15 pounds. Zane has a great attitude. He is an extremely hard worker. He is kind of like an old-school player. He just kind of knows how to play. He looks a little unorthodox, but he gets a lot done."

Coach Romar on Brandon Roy

"Brandon is kind of a do-it-all player. He does a lot of things in a lot of different areas. He was first or second in rebounds, assists and scoring. The sky is the limit for Brandon. It's rare, especially in today's game, to have a player that good play so unselfishly. When one of your best players is your most unselfish, that carries over. By the end of last year, the team was very unselfish in its play. Brandon has a chance to be as good an offensive player as there is in this league."

Odessa (Texas) Junior College

2001-02 (Freshman) — Averaged 12.3 points, 5.1 rebounds and 2.0 steals during his only season at Odessa ... His best game was a 17-point, 12-rebound effort during a 79-75 win over Clarendon ... The Wranglers finished with an 18-4 record after advancing to the 2002 regional tournament ... Odessa placed second in the Western Junior College Athletic Conference with a 7-1 mark.

Garfield High School

Averaged 13 points and eight rebounds as a senior in 2000 ... Helped the Bulldogs reach the Washington state tournament semifinals where they lost 54-52 to eventual champion Foss of Tacoma.

Coach Romar on Tre Simmons

"He can score in bunches as well as anyone on our team. He's going to play a significant role on our team this year. You think of the Stanford game here where he helped blow it open. I can name you a half dozen games where his shooting alone either brought us back or broke the game open. He joined us two weeks into the school year and he wasn't in the greatest condition. He had to do a ton of school work in the first quarter to be eligible. He had some family issues and couldn't practice for a week with the flu. That affected him getting off to a slow start. What we will see this year is a more consistent Tre Simmons playing at a high level from day one. He can definitely create his own shot. Derek Whittenberg once told me that, 'there are shooters and there are makers.' Tre is a maker."

Favorite Movie: The Last Dragon

Favorite Musician: N.W.A.

Favorite Book: Mice and Men

I came to Washington because: This program looked like the best one for me.

I wear No. 0 because: Not many people have it.

Favorite meal: Pizza

My childhood sports hero was: Michael Jordan

My greatest sports memory: Winning the Northern League with my father.

My favorite non-basketball team: UW football

My hobbies/interests: Working with animals and sleeping.

The hardest part about being a student/athlete is: Getting everything done.

University of Washington

Scholarship freshman ... The only freshman on the UW roster ... A phenomenal athlete who possesses tremendous leaping ability ... Expected to challenge immediately for time in the playing rotation.

Brewster Academy

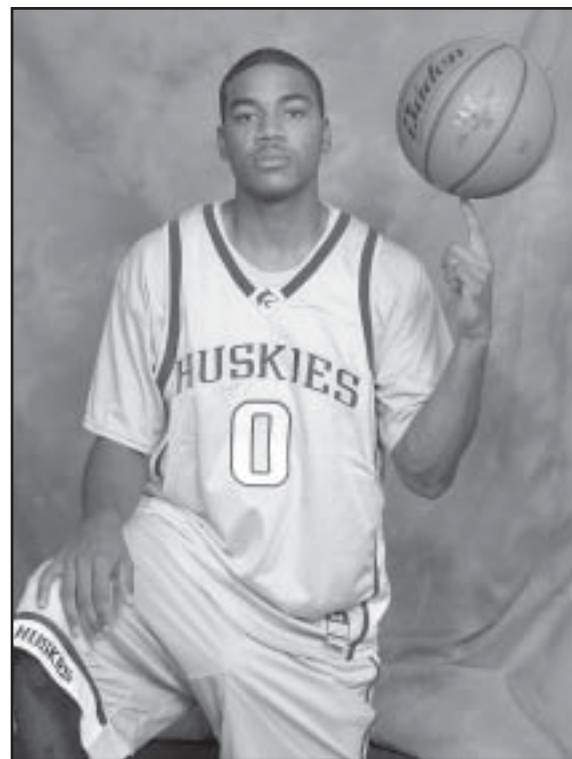

The No. 18-rated small forward among the high school class of 2004 by TheInsidersHoops.com ... An honorable mention prep All-America selection by Street & Smith's ... Averaged 14 points, 6 rebounds and 3 assists in 2003 at Brewster Academy ... The Bobcats advanced to the league semifinals and were ranked 10th in the final 2003 Prep School Poll.

Lompoc High School

The 2002 Northern League MVP his final year at Lompoc (Calif.) High School ... Led the team with 22 points and 13 rebounds per game.

Coach Romar on Joel Smith

"Joel is athletic and he knows how to play. He plays hard all the time. Put him out there and he will do something to help your team. He's another energy guy. He's a very charismatic and excitable guy. He's a good athlete who fits right in with everything that we're doing."
