The nation's leading returning rebounder and the Pac-10's top active career scorer

Preseason All-America selection and a candidate for national Player of the Year honors ... Nation's leading returning rebounder ... Called the best rebounder in the nation by Jay Bilas of ESPN.com ... Twice Pac-10 and three-time school rebounding leader ... Enters 2008-09 needing just 159 rebounds to become the UW all-time career leader (enters season with 892) ... Among school's top-20 and Pac-10's active career leader in scoring (1,299 pts) ... has 40 career double-doubles ... Looking to become first player to ever lead UW in rebounding four-straight seasons.

2007-08 (Junior) — Led the Pac-10 and third nationally with a 11.6 rebounding average ... League's 6th in scoring with 17.8 points per game and 3rd in field goal pct. with .536 ... First-team all-district by Basketball Times, NABC and the USBWA ... Second-team all-Pac-10 selection ... honorable mention Pac-10 all-defensive team ... Registered league-leading 23 double-doubles and scored in double-figures in all 32 games ... three-time league Player of the Week ... Set career-highs with 31 points and 18 rebounds against Utah ... blocked career-best six shots against then-16th ranked Texas A&M ... grabbed 17 rebounds against Washington State and UCLA ... Played 35 minutes or more in 12 games. 2006-07 (Sophomore) — A first-team All-Pac selection ... Started all 32 games ... Led all Pac-10 players with an average of 9.6 rebounds per game ... Led league with 15 double-doubles (double-figure points & rebounds) ... Ranked third among Pac-10 players in field goal percentage (55.0%) ... Ranked 12th among Pac-10 players and second on the team in scoring (14.2 ppg) ... Amassed 19 points and 14 rebounds against LSU and helped hold Glen Davis under 10 points for the first time in 49 games ... Voted the Feb. 12 Pac-10 Player of the Week after a pair of double-doubles helped UW sweep California and No. 25 Stanford at home ... Tallied double-figure points in 26 games ... Led all Husky rebounders on 24 occasions, including 18 double-digit rebound games. 2005-06 (Freshman) — Played all 33 games, starting every one except the final home game against California when Jamaal Williams started on senior night ... Voted to the All-Pac-10 Freshman Team by the league's coaches ... Had a spectacular debut with a 17-point,

DAWG BYTES:

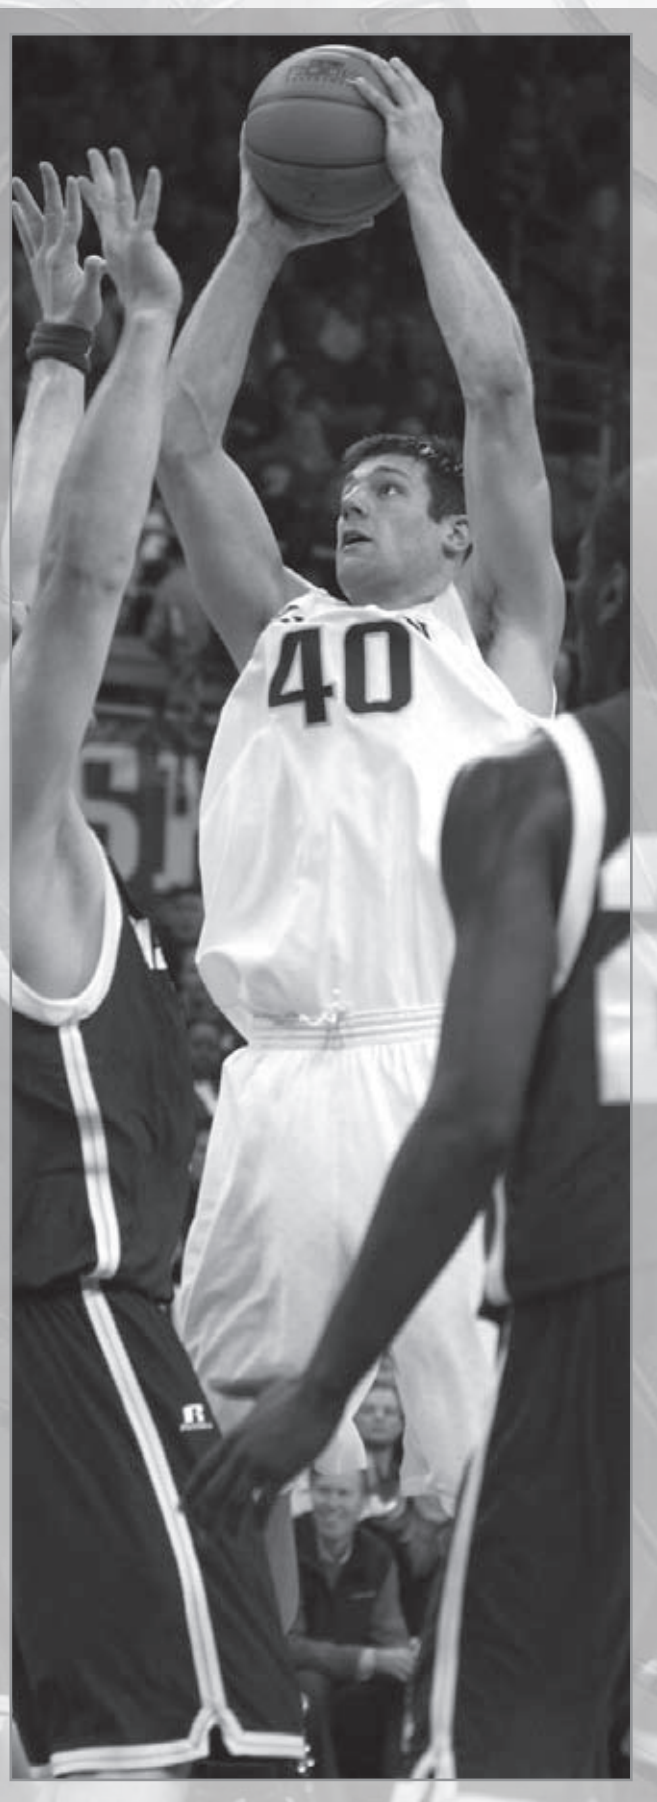

"His relentless work ethic and his leadership may be his top strengths. He is, obviously, a great rebounder. But, his character and work ethic is what drives him to be a great player. He really earns the respect of those around him."

— Lorenzo Romar

10-rebound double-double against Morgan State ... Received the MVP award of the BCA Classic after 21-point, 10-rebounds against Air Force ... Led the Huskies and 7th in Pac-10 with 6.5 rebounds per game ... Led the team and ranked second in the conference with a 51.8-percent field goal accuracy ... Led all Huskies in rebounds during 12 games ... Amassed 215 rebounds, the second-highest total by a UW freshman behind only the record of 234 set by Mark Pope in 1992 ... Listed No. 7 among all-time UW freshmen with 278 points, No. 2 in steals with 35 and No. 6 in minutes with 794.

DAWG BYTES:

"Joe is an excellent outside shooter. It is hard to find a big guy who can shoot the ball like he does. He has a strong work ethic. He's been down, but you can never count him out."

— Lorenzo Romar
