AP RECAP: Isaiah Thomas lived up to his billing in his collegiate debut as he scored 27 points as the Huskies ran past Western Washington 105-85 in an exhibition game. Justin Dentmon scored 18 points and Jon Brockman added 14 points and 18 rebounds for Washington. Michael Duty scored 17 points for Division II Western Washington, which is picked to finish second this season in the Great Northwest Athletic Conference. Thomas is the teen scoring and passing whiz from Tacoma who was the state Class 4A player of the year as a junior at Curtis High School and once averaged 41.5 points per game in the Washington state tournament.

AP RECAP: Justin Dentmon scored 21 points and freshman Isaiah Thomas added 19 as Washington survived an off night from star Jon Brockman and a halftime deficit to beat Florida International at home 74-51. Dentmon's took over the game by scoring seven points in the first four minutes after halftime to turn Washington's one-point deficit into a 38-32 lead. That edge grew to 55-43 with 8½ minutes left, then to 66-47 while FIU went almost five minutes without scoring. Russell Hicks scored 15 points for Florida International, which was missing four injured players. Panthers leading scorer Michael Dominguez was 0-for-8 from the field and had just four points.

AP RECAP: Jon Brockman squeezed between two Florida players, tracked down teammate Isaiah Thomas' missed free throw and flipped up a fadeaway from the corner at the buzzer. It came up just short - and Florida's bench let out a collective sigh of relief. Nick Calathes scored 15 of his 21 points in the second half and No. 17 Florida held off a late rally to beat Washington 86-84 in the consolation game of the CBE Classic. After trailing by 10 points with just under 5 minutes left, the Huskies chipped away, tying it at 81-all on two free throws by Brockman with 1:23 left. Walter Hodge followed with a 3-pointer from the corner to put Florida up by 3, then Thomas hit two free throws with 50 seconds left. After Calathes and Allan Chaney each hit 1 of 2 free throws to put the Gators up 86-83, Florida fouled Thomas with 2.5 seconds left. Thomas hit one free throw and Brockman got the rebound when the freshman purposely missed the second, but his fadeaway from the corner hit front rim at the buzzer.

AP RECAP: Quincy Pondexter stepped up against Pacific and nullified the Tigers' double team on Jon Brockman with his third career double-double as the Huskies rolled in the second half for a 72-54 victory. Pondexter had 16 points and 12 rebounds. Justin Dentmon added 15 points. Brockman, who entered the game with a team-leading 18 points and 12.6 rebounds per game, was held to 13 points and just six rebounds against Pacific's sagging zone. Terrell Smith led a balanced Pacific attack with 12 points. Nine different players scored for the Tigers. The Huskies then came out and built their lead to 47-30 with 14:16 to go. The Tigers closed to within 48-39, but the Huskies broke out on a 16-8 run for a 64-47 lead with 5:02 left. Dentmon finished the run with a steal, then fed the ball to freshman Isaiah Thomas for a fast-break basket. The Huskies grabbed 26 of their 46 rebounds in the second half.

AP RECAP: Freshman Isaiah Thomas scored 18 points and rugged Jon Brockman pounded smaller Oklahoma State inside with 16 points and 11 rebounds as Washington avenged a 25-point loss last December to the Cowboys with an 83-65 victory on Thursday night. "All I can say is: payback. Big time," senior guard Justin Dentmon said after he scored 14 points for the Huskies including a circus shot during the game's decisive run midway through the first half. "This is one team I circled on my calendar." Obi Muonelo scored 18 points for Oklahoma State (5-3), which lost for the third time in four games. The Cowboys lost to Gonzaga and Michigan State last week. Cowboys leading scorer Terrell Harris scored only 10 points, eight below his average coming in. Brockman got his fourth double-double in seven games this season and the 44th of his 104-game career for the Huskies, who had their most impressive showing of the young season.

AP RECAP: Matthew Bryan-Amaning came off the bench to score a career-high 18 points as Washington coasted to an 88-52 victory over winless Texas Southern. Jon Brockman added 15 points and 11 rebounds for the Huskies, making seven of eight shot attempts. Quincy Pondexter added 13 as 10 Huskies scored. Matthew Miller led the Tigers with 12 points. Five minutes into the second half, it turned into the Bryan-Amaning show. The 6-foot-9 freshman forward scored every point -- 14 straight -- for the Huskies over a six-minute span, building Washington's lead to 68-40 with 8:10 left. Washington had a season-high nine steals and forced 24 turnovers that yielded 46 points. The Huskies finished with 59.3 percent shooting from the floor (35 of 59) and held a 36-27 edge on the boards.

AP RECAP: Washington, playing without leading scorer Jon Brockman, used a balanced attack led by Matthew Bryan-Amaning to hold off a late charge by Portland State for an 84-83 victory on Sunday. Bryan-Amaning led the Huskies with career highs of 23 points and 12 rebounds. Quincy Pondexter added 21 points, Justin Dentmon had 20 and Isaiah Thomas scored 16. Pondexter made a critical tipin with 26 seconds left to thwart the Vikings down the stretch. Dominic Waters led Portland State with 19 points. Jeremiah Dominguez had 16. Brockman, a senior forward who leads the team in scoring average at 16.8 points and rebounding at 11.4, sprained his right ankle during practice and was unable to play. With the Huskies leading 82-80 with five seconds left, Dentmon sealed the game with a pair of free throws. Waters made a desperate 3-pointer at the buzzer to finish it.

AP RECAP: Jon Brockman revived after a slow start to score 17 points and lead Washington easily past Eastern Washington 83-50 on Saturday night before an estimated crowd of 2,500 that was reduced by a snowstorm in Seattle. Brockman missed five of his first six shots, and the nation's leading returning rebounder had a season-low five boards. But he scored 12 points in the second half, padding a rout that had started midway through the first half. Isaiah Thomas and Justin Dentmon added 13 points each for Washington, which has won five consecutive games. Chris Busch scored 13 points for the Eagles (6-5), who lost for the third consecutive time.

AP RECAP: Jon Brockman had 13 points and 11 rebounds to lead the Washington Huskies to a 75-53 victory over Montana for their sixth straight win. Brockman, the team's leading scorer and rebounder, had his usual steady performance despite being limited by a heavy bandage on his nonshooting left hand. He needed three stitches after cutting his thumb opening a Christmas present. Isaiah Thomas also scored 13 points for Washington, which played for the first time in eight days. Venoy Overton scored a season-high 10 points while Matthew Bryan-Amaning also added 10 for the Huskies. Montana was led by Anthony Johnson and Ryan Staudacher, who had 11 points each. The Grizzlies lost their third game in a row.

AP RECAP: Freshman guard Isaiah Thomas scored a career-high 27 points and Jon Brockman grabbed the 1,000th rebound of his career as Washington extended its winning streak to seven, beating Morgan State 81-67. Senior center Brockman, who sat out nearly 11 minutes of the second half after picking up his fourth foul with 16:55 left in the game, added 18 points for the Huskies. He finished the night with five rebounds, giving him 1,004. He is within 47 rebounds of the all-time Washington career record of 1,051 set by Doug Smart from 1957-59. Thomas' previous career high for the Huskies was 19 points on Nov. 20 against Florida International. Reggie Holmes led Morgan State with 16 points. Jermaine Bolden had 15 points, and Marquise Kately chipped in 14.

AP RECAP: Isaiah Thomas scored 19 points as Washington beat Washington State 68-48 in the Pac-10 opener for both teams. The win broke the Huskies' seven-game losing streak to their cross-state rivals. Justin Dentmon added 17 points and Quincy Pondexter 16 for Washington, which has won eight games in a row. Taylor Rochestie scored 12 points for Washington State. The Huskies made 6-of-11 3-pointers in the game and blew the contest open in the second half. After WSU tied the game at 30 with the first basket of the second half, Thomas' 3-pointer sparked a 9-0 Washington run for a 39-30 lead, at that point the largest of a close game. Dentmon's 3-pointer gave Washington a 44-34 lead, as the Huskies made 5-of-7 field goals to open the second half. WSU was making just 2-of-6 to fall behind.

AP RECAP: Justin Dentmon rescued Washington from a rare off night by its leader, scoring 22 points and the surprising Huskies beat Southern California 78-73. Senior Jon Brockman had 13 rebounds but scored a season-low four points and did not make a field goal for the first time since his freshman season. Yet dynamic freshman Isaiah Thomas, the team's co-leader in scoring coming in, scored 17 to aid Dentmon for the Huskies. They won for the 12th time in 13 games. Daniel Hackett scored a season-high 24 points and DeMar DeRozan added 16 - but just four after halftime - for the Trojans. They lost for the third time in five games.

AP RECAP: Quincy Pondexter scored 20 points, including a pair of key free throws down the stretch, and No. 22 Washington won at Stanford 75-68. Isaiah Thomas added 17 points for the Huskies, who ended a 15-game losing streak at Stanford. Jon Brockman added 13 points and 12 rebounds, and Venoy Overton had 11 points. Landry Fields scored a career-high 22 points and had 10 rebounds to lead the Cardinal. Stanford made a run to close within 64-60 on a breakaway dunk by Josh Owens with 4:01 left. Pondexter followed with a pair of free throws to quiet the crowd. The Cardinal then closed to within 66-63 on Fields' jumper with 2:18 left. Thomas followed with a leaner and the Cardinal never got any closer.

AP RECAP: Bolstering his case for Pac-10 player of the year consideration, Justin Dentmon matched his career high with seven 3-pointers and scored 28 points, and the Huskies moved into first place in the Pac-10 Conference with a 79-60 win over Oregon State. Fortunately for Washington, Dentmon's performance and another solid effort off the bench from Venoy Overton staved off the Beavers' upset bid. Calvin Haynes led Oregon State with 15 points, but the Beavers dropped their third game in a row following a four-game winning streak.

AP RECAP: Four Washington players surpassed 20 points apiece as Washington raced to a 103-84 win over Oregon despite a 33-point effort by UO's Tajuan Porter. Isaiah Thomas scored 24 points, followed by Justin Dentmon and Jon Brockman with 21 each and Quincy Pondexter added 20 for the first-place Huskies. The UW's 103 points were a season-high and the most-ever against the Ducks in series history. Washington has won eight-straight over Oregon in Seattle but had to hold off Porter's 27-point second-half outburst to win.

Washington trailed by 10 midway through the second half, but led by their bullying senior forward, the Huskies came back. The UW took the lead for good on Isaiah Thomas' three-point play with 5:25 left and then hit 10 of 12 free throws in the closing minutes. Jordan Hill led Arizona with a gutsy 27 points and 10 rebounds, playing the final four minutes after injuring his left ankle.

AP RECAP: Quincy Pondexter scored 16 points and Jon Brockman tied his career high with 18 rebounds in his final home game to lead No. 16 Washington to a 67-60 victory over Washington State, clinching its first outright conference championship since 1953. Venoy Overton scored 14 points and threw the ball high toward the roof of raucous Hec Edmundson Pavilion as the final buzzer sounded. The Huskies won their first Pac-10 outright title, and first outright championship in any league since winning the Pacific Coast Conference 56 years ago. Taylor Rochestie overcame a cold start to score 23 points for Washington State, which lost both games to its archrival this season after beating the Huskies seven consecutive times.

AP RECAP: Jon Brockman scored 20 points, Isaiah Thomas sparked a decisive second-half spurt with nine points and the 13th-ranked Huskies defeated Stanford 85-73 in the Pac-10 tournament quarterfinals Thursday at the Staples Center. Anthony Goods scored 26 points for the Cardinal. Tied at 27-all, the Huskies outscored the Cardinal 11-8 to end the half ahead 38-35. Elston Turner hit three consecutive 3-pointers and Justin Holiday dunked in the spurt. The Cardinal got two 3-pointers, including a buzzer-beater by Kenny Brown, who finished with 11. Thomas ran off seven points in a row and hit another basket, and Brockman added five points, during Washington's 16-11 run that opened the second half and put the Huskies ahead for good, 54-46. Thomas finished with 14 points and a career-high nine rebounds.

AP RECAP: James Harden scored 24 points, and No. 23 Arizona State topped No. 13 Washington 75-65 in the semifinals of the Pac-10 tournament after the Huskies battled back from a 21-point deficit. Harden, the Pac-10 player of the year, had nine rebounds and four assists for the fourth-seeded Sun Devils, who beat the Huskies for just the second time in the last 15 games between the schools. Freshman Isaiah Thomas scored 17 points for the top-seeded Huskies, who had their six-game winning streak snapped and lost for just the second time in 11 games.

AP RECAP: Quincy Pondexter scored a season-high 23 points and fourth-seeded Washington took advantage of early foul trouble to Mississippi State's menacing Jarvis Varnado to race past the 13th-seeded Bulldogs 71-58 in the first round of the NCAA tournament on Thursday. Jon Brockman had 14 rebounds and 10 points for the Huskies (26-8), who looked far better than the last time they played in this city, losing to Portland of the West Coast Conference to begin the season. Barry Stewart had 11 points but was able to get off just five shots for Mississippi State (23-13), which reached the NAAs for the sixth time in eight years by winning six consecutive games -- including four in its surprising romp to the Southeastern Conference tournament title.

AP RECAP: JaJuan Johnson scored 22 points and had two huge blocks in the final minute as fifth-seeded Purdue held off a frantic charge to beat fourth-seeded Washington 76-74 in the second round of the NCAA Tournament in Portland. E'Twaun Moore scored 14 points and made the clinching free throws with 5.5 seconds remaining. The Boilermakers (27-9), the Big Ten tournament champions, led the entire game, despite the Huskies charging back from a 14-point deficit. Isaiah Thomas scored 24 points, Quincy Pondexter had 20 with 10 rebounds and Jon Brockman added 20 points with 18 rebounds - the 60th and final double-double of his career - for Washington (26-9), the regular-season champion of the Pac-10.
