Husky Hall of Fame

The University of Washington inaugurated a Hall of Fame in 1979 to "... honor and preserve the memory of those athletes, teams, coaches and members of the athletic staff who have contributed in a very outstanding and positive way to the promotion of the University of Washington athletic program."

Some 136 individuals and 15 teams have been inducted to the Washington Hall of Fame in an annual special ceremony.

Retired Husky Jerseys*2 Chuck Carroll

Chuck Carroll was a consensus All-American in 1928, capping an outstanding career in which he was a three-time letterwinner while helping lead the Huskies to a 24-8 overall record. He also received the Guy Flaherty award that season, as he set a Husky record with 17 touchdowns in one season, a record that stood until the 1996 season when it was broken by Corey Dillon. Carroll, a two-time All-Coast selection (1927-28), also owns the Husky record for most points scored in a game — 36 against Puget Sound in 1928. Carroll was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1964 and the Husky Hall of Fame in 1979.

33 George Wilson

George Wilson was described as one of the most fearless all-around players in the country during his Husky career, twice outplaying such well-known legends as Red Grange of Illinois and Ernie Nevers of Stanford. In 1925 he joined those two greats on the All-America team as Washington's first consensus pick. He also was a three-time All-Coast selection (1923-25). Wilson scored a school record 37 touchdowns during his career and led Washington to Rose Bowl appearances in 1924 and 1926. Wilson was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1951 and the Husky Hall of Fame in 1980.

44 Roland Kirkby

Roland Kirkby was one of the most underrated members of the Washington's Fearsome Foursome backfield in 1950. As a senior he was named first-team All-Coast by a vote of the coaches and second-team by several different organizations. Kirkby set a school record that season when he caught three touchdown passes in a game against Kansas State, a record that has since been tied but not broken. Kirkby was honorable mention All-America as a sophomore in 1948 and honorable mention All-Coast as a junior.

1991 National Champions

A potent offensive squad and an athletic defense came together to create a team that finished the 1991 season a perfect 12-0 to give Washington its first National Championship.

Offensively, the Husky running game was powered by the duo of Beno Bryant and Jay Barry, who helped Washington to average over 230 yards per game. They were complemented by sophomore quarterback Billy Joe Hobert, who proved he could run the ball when he was not throwing strikes to All-America receivers Mario Bailey or Orlando McKay. Senior center Ed Cunningham, All-American tackle Lincoln Kennedy, and Siupeli Malamala led an offensive line that enabled the Huskies to muster more than 470 yards of total offense a game, the best mark in the Pac-10. At the end of the season, five offensive players were named first or second-team All-Pac-10.

Consensus All-American Steve Emtman led one of the stingiest defenses college football has ever seen. Washington allowed less than 10 points a game while holding opposing rushers to 67 yards a game. The Huskies' defense swarmed the ball on every play with raw athleticism coming from every angle. Donald Jones, Andy Mason, Chico Fraley, Jaime Fields, Brett Collins and Dave Hoffmann created a wall few backs could penetrate. Waiting in the secondary was the backfield of Shane Pahukoa, Tommie Smith, Dana Hall and Walter Bailey. They did their share to create a defense that ranked first in the country in turnover margin.

Washington started the season with a pair of formidable challenges on the road, opening at Stanford and Nebraska. Making his starting debut after 1991 Rose Bowl MVP Mark Brunell suffered a knee injury during the spring, Hobert found Bailey in the endzone to give Washington a 21-7 lead at halftime following a scoreless first quarter and a pair of rushing scores by Bryant and Barry. The defense gained national attention in its opening performance by holding Stanford's Heisman candidate Glyn Milburn to only 16 yards on 11 carries as the Stanford offense managed just 238 yards on the day and turned the ball over six times.

In one of the most anticipated games of the early part of the college football season, fourth-ranked Washington traveled to Nebraska to face the ninth-ranked Cornhuskers. The Huskies fell behind 14-6 at the half to a team that had won 20 consecutive times on its home field. Events only got worse for the visitors when Nebraska's Derek Brown scored after UW muffed a punt on its own two-yard-line. That's where Washington began its greatest comeback of the season.

Behind Hobert's passing and play calling, early in the fourth quarter Washington took a 22-21 lead when McKay scored on an eight-yard toss. His second TD run of the game, with 7:26 remaining gave the Huskies an eight-point lead before an 81-yard run by Barry finished the game's scoring. The Husky defense stymied any Cornhusker comeback, creating two Nebraska turnovers. By the end of the contest the Huskies had reeled off 27 unanswered points and gained 618 yards of total offense.

"Their defense is dominant. Steve Emtman has to be the best lineman in the country. Nobody blocks him and the folks around him are great football players. Washington is as good a team as the Pac-10 has had, ever."

Opponents were overwhelmed by Washington's defense in its first three home contests of the season. The Husky defense turned in a spectacular effort against Kansas State, holding the Wildcats to three points and negative 17 yards on the ground. Washington's offense scored in six of its first seven possessions en route to a 56-3 win that also featured the return of Brunell to action as a backup.

Arizona's luck against Washington was even worse the following week as the Huskies parlayed seven Wildcat turnovers into 27 points and held a potent Arizona rushing attack to just 30 yards. Emtman reaped havoc on the Arizona offense, rocking quarterback George Malauulu for losses on Arizona's first two plays from scrimmage. The Huskies went on to hold the Wildcats to only 142 yards of offense and handed the Wildcats their worst defeat in history by a score of 54-0. The following week Mario Bailey hauled in three touchdowns as Washington recorded its second straight shutout, holding Toledo to just 48 rushing yards in a 48-0 win.

Upstart California, ranked seventh nationally, was the Huskies next big roadblock. Before a packed stadium in Berkeley, the Bears got on the scoreboard first when Sean Dawkins carried a Mike Pawlawski pass into the endzone near the end of the first period. Washington answered with a 35-yard touchdown pass from Hobert to Bailey to even the score. Washington took the lead on a short field goal by Travis Hanson before the Bears answered with their own 50-yard boot.

“Against that good of a football team, a team that motivated and that skilled ,you need to play damn perfect.”

– Bruce Snyder, California head coach

Washington took a lead into the locker room when Barry scored at the end of the half on a nine-yard run. Cal evened things up at the end of the third quarter when Lindsey Chapman raced 68 yards for a score.

The Huskies answered with their own big-play score when Bryant raced 65 yards on the next possession to give Washington a 24-17 lead. Cal made one last charge, but Husky cornerback Walter Bailey broke up a Pawlowski pass at the goal line on the final play of the game to ensure the win.

Jumping to third in the polls, the Huskies returned to Husky Stadium for a pair of home contests against Oregon and Arizona State. Washington frustrated the Ducks, holding them scoreless for the first 55 minutes of the game and limiting them to 129 yards of total offense in a 29-7 win highlighted by three Travis Hanson field goals.

The Sun Devils did not fare any better as the Huskies rattled off the first 41-points en route to a 44-16 win.

Heading back on the road for two of the last three contests of the regular season, the second-ranked Huskies went to the LA Memorial Coliseum to face the Trojans, who were looking for revenge after a 31-0 loss in 1990 at Husky Stadium. Bryant, a Los Angeles native, gave the Huskies all they would need with a pair of first-half touchdown runs to propel Washington to a 14-3 victory. The following week, Oregon State was defenseless as Bailey scored three times to lead Washington to a 58-6 win.

“I said it before the game that Washington is the best team I’ve seen in this league ,ever, and I still stand by that. I thought we made them work for it. The main problem was we couldn’t move the football against them.”

– Rich Brooks, Oregon head coach

The Huskies completed their perfect regular season with a convincing 56-11 victory over cross-state rival Washington State in the annual Apple Cup matchup. Seven different Husky players scored touchdowns in addition to a sack of Cougar quarterback Drew Bledsoe in the endzone by Jaime Fields.

Mario Bailey

“There is no question in my mind that Washington is the best team in the country. They’ve got a balanced offense, a fantastic defense and they’re strong in the kicking game. In my years of experience ,I haven’t seen a better overall team.”

– Larry Smith, Southern California Head Coach

Tied for the top ranking in the country heading into a showdown with Michigan in the Rose Bowl, the Huskies were ready to defend their crown in Pasadena against a high-powered offensive attack led by Heisman Trophy winner Desmond Howard. Hobert, who had been getting the job done all season by running and passing, gave Washington an early lead with a two-yard touchdown run. A Michigan touchdown and a pair of Travis Hanson field goals gave Washington a 13-7 lead at the half.

The second half belonged to the Huskies. A touchdown to freshman tight end Mark Bruener late in the third quarter started the onslaught. Early in the fourth, Hobert went back to the tight end, this time Aaron Pierce, to give Washington a 27-7 advantage before hitting Bailey with a 38-yard touchdown strike to lead Washington to a 34-14 win and cap a perfect season.

Early the next morning Husky head coach Don James received a phone call in his hotel room informing him that the Huskies had been voted National Champions in the coaches' poll. It proved to be the perfect ending to a dream season for Washington.

While Washington and Miami shared the 1991 National Championship, it is interesting to note that the Huskies were voted national champs by three of the four major organizations that crown a national champion. The National Football Foundation, USA Today/CNN and Football Writers all voted the Huskies No. 1 in their respective polls. Miami's only first-place finish was in the Associated Press poll.
