For Immediate Release: Thursday, May 27, 2010
Contact: Rachel Caton [rcaton@pac-10.org]

PAC-10 ANNOUNCES 2010 ROWING ALL-CONFERENCE AWARDS

WALNUT CREEK, Calif. -- By claiming the varsity eight competitions at the Pac-10 Rowing Championships, WASHINGTON men and CALIFORNIA women headline the 2010 All-Conference teams, Commissioner Larry Scott announced today.

Members of the All-Conference rowing teams are based upon each institution's finish in the varsity eight championship race at the Conference Championships, which were held May 16 on Lake Natoma in Gold River, Calif. The Conference champion provides four members of the All-Conference team, the Pac-10 second-place crew provides three members, and the Pac-10 third-place finisher provides two. All other participating Conference crews receive one selection each.

California, Stanford, UCLA, USC, Washington and Washington State on the women's side are headed for the NCAA Championship which runs May 28-30 at Lake Natoma in Gold River, Calif. On the men's side, California, Oregon State, Stanford and Washington will compete in the 108th IRA Regatta, June 3-5 in Camden County, NJ, on the Cooper River.

MEN'S ALL-CONFERENCE TEAM	WOMEN'S ALL-CONFERENCE TEAM
Mike Buckiewicz, OSU	Liene Bertasjus*, USC
Brian Belleville, UCLA	Alex Bolt, UCLA
James Dorsey, WSU	Katie Dick, WSU
Sean Engel, CAL	Mary Jeghers, CAL
Nareg Guregian, CAL	Kristina Lofman, CAL
Ryan Hasvold, USC	Elle Logan, STAN
Anthony Jacob, WASH	Grace Luczak, STAN
Max Lang, WASH	Kayleigh Mack, WASH
Alec Levy, STAN	Adrienne Martelli, WASH
Conlin McCabe, WASH	Lindsay Meyer, STAN
Dane McFadden, STAN	Lauren Morgenthaler, OSU
Hans Struzyna, WASH	Iva Obradovic, CAL
Zach Vlahos, CAL	Taryn O'Connell, CAL

second career All-Conference selection;
second career All-Conference selection;
*fourth career All-Conference selection

~ Pac-10 ~