WASHINGTON EARNS NO. 10 SEED IN THE EAST REGION OF NCAA TOURNAMENT

Penn State University will 24 teams and 6 individuals at the Penn State Blue Course

UW HEADING EAST FOR NCAA REGIONAL

The Huskies will be a No. 10 seed and compete at the East Region hosted by Penn State University at Penn State Golf Course. The Huskies will be making their 19th NCAA regional appearance and will be trying to advance to their 11th championship. Washington was seventh at last year's West Region hosted at Washington National in Auburn, Wash. and then 16th at the Championship held in College Station, Texas. All three regional tournaments will be held May 10-12. The top eight teams from each region will advance to the NCAA Championship to be held May 22-25 at Vanderbilt Legends Club in Franklin, Tenn. The Huskies are one of three Pac-12 teams assigned to play in State College, Pa. Joining them are Arizona State and Arizona. Alabama, from the SEC, is the overall No. 1 seed in the region.

Following The Huskies

There are numerous ways fans can follow Washington Husky women's golf, including on GoHuskies.com, Twitter and Facebook.

THE COURSE

Penn State Golf Courses are public courses located in State College, Pennsylvania. Surrounded by the scenic rolling mountains of central Pennsylvania, the courses are located just south of campus. The teams will be competing on the Blue Course, a 6,253-yard, par-72 track.

LIVE COVERAGE

Live scoring will be available daily on Golfstat.com. In addition, GoHuskies.com will have daily recaps.

THE HUSKIES IN A NUTSHELL

Head Coach Mary Lou Mulflur is in her 29th season at Washington, the longest tenured coach in the Pac-12 Conference ... The team has won one tournament this season, the Cougar Cup, their first competition of the year coming way back in September. In all, Washington has finished third or better in five of 11 tournaments this year ... Washington is attempting to make back-to-back NCAA championship appearances for the first time since 2004, 2005 & 2006 ... Currently, the Huskies are ranked 23rd in the Golfweek/Sagarin rankings and 29th by Golfstat.com ... The Huskies are a relatively young team that features three freshmen, a sophomore and a lone senior in their lineup. Washington will have a lineup of: SooBin Kim (Fr.), Sadena Parks (Sr.), Jennifer Yang (Fr.), Cyd Okino (Fr.) and Kelli Bowers (So.) ... Kim was named to the Pac-12 All-Conference second team. She is the first Husky since current LPGA Tour pro Paige Mackenzie (1st Team, 2006) to earn either first or second team all-conference honors ... Kim and Yang were high school teammates at Gleneagle Secondary in British Columbia, Canada ... Kim is currently ranked 39th by Golfstat.com and 42nd by Golfweek.com ... Okino played in the U.S. Open as a 14-year-old phenom. She attended the same high school in Hawai'i -- Punahoa -- that President Barack Obama attended.

PAC-12 POWER

Washington has mostly went under the radar this season, perhaps because of the strength of its conference. The Huskies are one of 10 teams to advance from the Pac-12 to an NCAA regional (only 11 conference schools compete in golf). Both USC and UCLA were named No. 1 seeds in the Central and West regions, respectively. The Pac-12 has captured 14 NCAA team titles in women's golf, led by Arizona State's seven wins. A total of 12 individual champions have come out of the conference.

THE FIELD

COACH MARY LOU MULFLUR - 29TH YEAR (WASHINGTON, 1980)

In the history of the Husky women's golf team, two individuals stand out as the cornerstones for the program. The first is Edean Ihlanfeldt, the namesake of the Huskies' annual fall tournament. She was Washington's first coach. So dedicated to seeing women have an opportunity to compete on the intercollegiate level, Ihlanfeldt never accepted a paycheck for her efforts. She funneled her salary back into the program. The second is current head coach Mary Lou Mulflur, who is entering her 29th season in 2011-12 directing the Huskies.

A player for Ihlanfeldt, Mulflur's passion and commitment to Husky golf makes her former mentor proud. Mulflur's dedication, teaching skills and fundraising abilities have allowed her to build the Husky program into one of the nation's most competitive teams on an annual basis. The 2010-11 Huskies returned to the NCAA Championship for the first time in five seasons. Their 16th place finish at Texas A&M's Traditions Course tied for the team's sixth-best finish at the Championship.

In 2006, the Huskies matched a school-record with a sixth-place finish at the NCAA Championships, its second Top-10 finish in three years and third overall. Senior Paige Mackenzie led the way, winning Washington's first individual Pac-10 title and the second-ever NCAA West Regional title. Mackenzie also notched her second-straight Top-10 NCAA finish with an eighth-place standing. Mackenzie culminated her career with her second-straight All-America honor.

In 2005, the Huskies placed 14th at the NCAA Championships, with Mackenzie recording Washington's first ever top 10 NCAA finish. She placed 10th and received honorable mention All-America honors after the season. The 2005 season was the 13th consecutive year the Huskies advanced to the NCAA Regional Championships. Washington has competed at the Regionals all but one year since its inception in 1993.

In 2004, Washington experienced one of its greatest campaigns, finishing sixth at the NCAA Championships. It was the highest finish ever by a UW team at the NCAAs. The Huskies were led by Mackenzie, who placed 11th at the national championships and was named a second-team All-American. Classmate Sung Ea Lee was named an honorable mention All-American. In Mulflur's tenure at Washington, six Huskies have earned All-America honors a total of 10 times.

In 2001, Mulflur led Washington to a 16th-place finish at the NCAA Championships. At the time, it was the best showing by a Husky team at the national championships. UW's 2002 NCAA Championships appearance was the fifth by the Huskies over a stretch of eight years. That season the Huskies won the Oregon Duck Invitational and the Peg Barnard California Collegiate, and tied for fifth at the Pac-10 Championships.

Mulflur's players have also achieved in the classroom. Mackenzie was named to the National Golf Coaches Association's All-Scholar Team three-straight seasons. During Mulflur's tenure, 12 UW golfers have earned the distinction on 23 occasions. Twice during Mulflur's career she has been named the Pac-10 Conference Coach of the Year. The first time she received the honor was in 1988. She picked up the award for the second time in 1999.

In 1995, Mulflur directed the Huskies to their first team NCAA Finals appearance on the strength of a sixth-place finish in the NCAA West Regional. In 1988, the UW had its best Pac-10 finish ever, placing third in the conference tournament. That year brought Mulflur her first Pac-10 Coach of the Year award. Mulflur has coached several Husky players who have gone on to play professionally or coach. Nancy Kessler-McDaniel, who played at UW from 1984 to 1988, went on to play professionally and is now the head coach at California. Former Husky All-American Kelli Kamimura is the head coach at Washington State University.

MULFLUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- UW has made 19 NCAA Regional appearance under Mulflur and nine NCAA Championships.
- Players have been named NGCA All-America 10 times under Mulflur's tutelage.
- Ten first-team All-Pac-10 selections.
- UW athletes have been named Pac-10 All-Academic 28 times under Mulflur's watch.
- Pac-10 Coach of the Year in 1988 and 1999.
- Coached two NCAA Regional Champs (Paige Mackenzie, 2006 and Dodie Mazzuca, 1997).

Currently playing in the LPGA are Mulflur products Mackenzie and Louise Friberg. Both former Huskies played together at the 2008 SBS Open at Turtle Bay, marking the first time two UW alumni have played in the same LPGA event. Friberg won on the LPGA tour in 2005 in Mexico with a final round 65. Mulflur, regarded as one of the most successful golfers to come out of the UW, came to Washington in 1976 and was one of the first female athletes to receive a scholarship at Washington.

The Portland, Ore., native went on to earn four letters as a Husky. During her collegiate career Mulflur won three regular-season tournaments, including the inaugural Ihlanfeldt Invitational in 1980. To date, Kamimura is the only Husky golfer with more career wins than Mulflur. While attending Grant High School in Portland, Mulflur won state high school titles in 1974 and 1975. She also won the 1975 Oregon junior championship. Mulflur won Southern Oregon titles in 1980, 1982, 1995 and 1997 as well as the Oregon Coast Invitational in 1979, 1982, and 1990.

Mulflur has competed in five United States Golf Association events - The U.S. Open in 1979 and 1980 and the U.S. Amateur in 1979, 1980 and 1982. In addition she competed in four National Collegiate Championships. Mulflur graduated from Washington in 1980 with a degree in speech communications. She is a former vice-president of the National Golf Coaches Association and served on the LPGA SAFECO Classic Advisory Board.

She currently serves as a member of the NCAA Division I Women's Golf Committee. She appears annually as a celebrity player in several local golf events and fundraisers. In October of 2004, Mulflur was inducted into the PIL Hall of Fame in Portland. And in 2006 she was inducted into the Grant High School Hall of Fame. This past December she was awarded the NGCA Founders Award which honors a coach who has made significant contributions to the sport during the year.
