Husky/Nike Invitational Tournament

The Huskies celebrate their 2002 Nike Invitational championship, the first of three straight titles in their annual tournament.

The University of Washington teams up with Nike to host the 11th-annual Husky Invitational Tournament in 2005. The 2005 Nike Invitational field includes NCAA Tournament quarterfinalists Portland and Washington along with Pacific and San Diego State.

Washington captured its own tournament title the last three years (2002-04), winning consecutive championships for the first time since 1995-96. UW won the first three Husky Invitational Tournament championships from 1994-1996 while Portland claimed four straight from 1997-2001. The tournament took a one-year hiatus in 2000.

The Huskies are 14-4-2 in all-time Nike Tournament play, outscoring opponents 52-22 in those matches.
