Husky/Nike Invitational History

The Huskies celebrate their 2002 Nike Invitational championship, the first of three straight titles in their annual tournament.

The University of Washington teams up with Nike to host the 12th-annual Husky Invitational Tournament in 2006. The the 2006 Nike Invitational field includes defending NCAA champion Portland along with Rhode Island and Wisconsin-Milwaukee.

The Huskies captured their own tournament title six times, winning three consecutive championships between 1994-96 and again from 2002-04. Portland collected last year's trophy, its fifth overall. The Pilots won four straight titles from 1997-2001. The tournament took a one-year hiatus in 2000.

The Huskies are 14-5-3 in all-time Nike Tournament play, outscoring opponents 53-24 in those matches.
