COMING UP . . .

June 2-8

Women's College World Series
Oklahoma City, Okla.
TBD

QUICK PITCH . . .

Washington has won 11 regional games in a row and has not lost since 2002 when it dropped a 2-1 decision to Ohio State in Ann Arbor ... Ashley Boek set two UW records last weekend, including most starts in a career (125) and most strikeouts in a game (18 vs. Creighton in 11 innings.) ... UW is 0-1 against Michigan in the postseason, losing a 6-5 decision in Ann Arbor in 2002 ... Washington is 2-2 in regional action in Ann Arbor, defeating Oakland (8-0) and Central Michigan (4-1) in 2002, before falling to Michigan and Ohio State.

HUSKIES TO FACE MICHIGAN IN SUPER REGIONAL BEST-OF-THREE SERIES

UP NEXT: The Washington softball team (34-20) won the No. 16 Regional Championship in Lincoln Nebraska last week with a 2-0 victory over Iowa to advance to the NCAA Super Regional. Washington is the 16th seed overall and will face No. 1 Michigan (58-4) in a best-of-three series in Ann Arbor. The winner of the Super Regional will advance to the Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City, Okla., June 2-8. Washington has played in seven College World Series', including the last two and has won its last 11 regional games dating back to 2002. The Huskies are 49-20 all-time in the NCAA Tournament and are 36-8 in the regional tournament. Washington leads Michigan 5-4 in the all-time series, including a 5-3 decision at the 2003 NFCA Classic. The Super Regional games will air live on KKNW 1150 AM and will be available over the internet at www.gohuskies.com or www.newschannel1150.com. Broadcasts will begin 15 minutes prior to first pitch. The games will also be televised live by CSTV.

CSTV TO TELEVISION SUPER REGIONAL: College Sports Television has chosen the Washington-Michigan softball Super Regional as one of four to be nationally televised. The Huskies won their eighth regional championship last Sunday with a 2-0 victory over Iowa and will face top-ranked Michigan in the best-of-three series. Game one of the series will be Friday, May 27 at 4 pm (PST), while game two will be held on Saturday, May 28 at 11 am. If a third game is necessary, it will begin on Saturday at 2 pm. This will be Washington's fifth television appearance of the season and its first on CSTV. The Huskies had two televised games on FSN and two on ESPN. Carter Blackburn will call play-by-play and Ann Schatz will provide color commentary, while Jenny Caver will be the sideline reporter.

HUSKIES WIN EIGHTH REGIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP: The Huskies went 3-0 last weekend at the Lincoln Regional to capture their eighth Regional Championship. Washington defeated Creighton 2-1 in 11 innings in the opener, Nebraska 7-6 in the semifinal and Iowa 2-0 in the championship to advance to the Super Regional in Ann Arbor. Washington has won its last 11 regional games in a row, dating back to the 2002 season when UW lost to Ohio State in Ann Arbor.

UW IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT: The Huskies are making their 12th consecutive appearance in the NCAA Tournament. Washington has a 49-20 record in those games (36-8 Regionals/ 13-12 CWS) and has advanced to the College World Series seven times, including the last two seasons. UW was national runner-up in 1996 and 1999.

SCOUTING THE OPPOSITION:

NO. 1 MICHIGAN (58-4, 15-2 BIG TEN)

Series vs. UW: Huskies lead 5-4

Last meeting: Washington defeated Michigan 5-3 at the 2003 NFCA Classic in Columbus, Ga. Kathy Fiske went 3-for-4 with three runs scored, while Sarah Hyatt had two hits. Ashley Boek earned the win, scattering three hits over five innings with five strikeouts.

Notes: Michigan is the No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament and the No. 1 ranked team in both the ESPN.com/USA Softball and USA Today/NFCA Top 25 polls. The Wolverines won the Big Ten Conference title for the seventh time and swept their regional opponents in Ann Arbor last week. The team boast a .327 average and has four players hitting above .350. Jessica Merchant leads all hitters with a .395 average and has 35 extra-base hits, including 21 home runs. Tiffany Haas has a .384 average and leads the team with 16 doubles. Nicole Motycka is hitting .369 with 12 home runs and 42 RBIs and Samantha Indlay is hitting .366 with 20 home runs and 67 RBIs. The Wolverine pitching staff maintains a 0.90 earned run average and is led by Jennie Ritter (31-1) and Lorilyn Wilson (22-2). Ritter has a 0.90 ERA, 14 shutouts and 331 strikeouts in 218.2 innings. Wilson has a 0.92 ERA with nine shutouts and 183 strikeouts in 136.1 innings.

BOEK NAMED MVP OF REGIONAL TOURNAMENT: Senior Ashley Boek was named the Most Valuable Player of the Regional Tournament after leading the Huskies to their third straight NCAA Regional Championship. Boek tallied all three of Washington's victories in Lincoln and struck out 32 batters in 23.1 innings. She held her opponents to a .130 average and just 10 hits and two earned runs. Also named to the all-tournament team were Sarah Hyatt, Dominique Lastrapes and Aimee Minor. Lastrapes led all players with a .667 average (8-for-12), including two doubles. Hyatt hit .455 (5-for-11) with two home runs and four RBIs, while Minor also had two home runs and four RBIs.

RIVERA NAMED CO-PAC-10 PLAYER OF THE YEAR: Kristen Rivera is the Pacific-10 Conference Co-Player of the Year and shares the award with Arizona's Caitlin Lowe. This is the second year in a row Rivera has won the award. A three-time All-American catcher, she leads the nation in slugging percentage (.955) and walks (1.24 per game) and ranks second in home runs (.37 per game). Rivera holds the UW career home run record with 77 blasts, which rank fourth on the Pac-10 all-time list. She also holds the single-season (25-2003) and single-game (3) home run records.

HYATT, LASTRAPES, RIVERA NAMED TO ALL-REGION TEAM: Three Washington Huskies were named to the Louisville Slugger/NFCA Division I All-Pacific Region softball teams, including first team selection Kristen Rivera and second team selections Sarah Hyatt and Dominique Lastrapes. This is Rivera's fourth all-region honor, Lastrapes' second and Hyatt's first. All three players are now eligible for the All-America award. Rivera is a three-time All-American and Lastrapes earned All-America accolades last season. Washington has never had a four-time All-American.

WASHINGTON IN THE POLLS: The Huskies are ranked 21st in the USA Today/NFCA Coaches Top 25 poll. The Huskies have been ranked in the poll for each of the last 153 datings. Washington's streak began with the team's No. 15 pre-season ranking in 1994 and also includes smaller streaks of 66 straight top 6 rankings (2/28/96 – pre-season 2001 poll) and 69 consecutive poll datings in the top 10 (pre-season 1996 – 2/28/01). Washington is ranked 21st in the latest USA Softball/ESPN.com top 25 poll.

RIVERA BREAKS UW HOME

RECORD: Senior Kristen Rivera set the UW career record with her 74th home run vs. Utah Valley State on May 5 to surpass Jaime Clark (73, 2000-03). She has hit three more since then to bring her season total to 19 and her career total to 77. Rivera ranks fourth on the Pac-10 all-time list behind No. 1 Stacey Nuveman (90, UCLA, 1997-02) and No. 2 Leah Braatz (85, Arizona, 1994-98) and Laura Espinoza (85, Arizona, 1992-95). She also holds the single-season home run record (25, 2003) and single-game record (3) at Washington.

RIVERA BREAKS WALKS RECORD: Kristen Rivera holds game, season and career walks records at UW. She has walked 66 times this season to surpass the previous record of 56 set by Kim DePaul (2000) and Jenny Topping (2000). Rivera has 178 career walks to break the previous record of 175 set by Jen Cline (1993-96). She also holds the UW game record with four walks vs. ASU (4/4/04) and DePaul (3/19/05).

RIVERA CHALLENGES RBI RECORD: Kristen Rivera has driven in 230 career runs to rank second on the UW all-time list and eighth on the Pac-10 all-time list. Rivera is 10 RBIs away from the No. 7 spot on the Pac-10 list held by Arizona's Lety Pineda (240, 1995-98) and 13 away from UW record-holder Jaime Clark (243, 2000-03).

DYNAMIC DUO: Ashley Boek (210) and Caitlin Noble (227) are the first pitching duo in Washington history to amass 200 strikeouts each in a single season. Boek is only the second UW pitcher to tally 200 strikeouts in more than one season (283, 2004). Jennifer Spediacci did it three times. Boek and Noble have combined for 437 strikeouts this year in 345.1 innings (54 games) for the second-most strikeouts in UW history. The 2000 pitching staff struck out 517 batters over 478.2 innings (71 games).

BOEK SETS CAREER STARTS RECORD: Ashley Boek made her 125th career start vs. Iowa in the Regional Championship game to set a UW career record. The previous record of 124 games was held by Jennifer Spediacci (1997-2000) and Tia Bollinger (2001-04).

BOEK CLIMBS PAC-10 APPEARANCE CHART: Senior Ashley Boek has made 163 career appearances in the circle to tie former Oregon State player Amy Warner (163, 1994-97) for the No. 6 spot on the Pac-10 all-time list. Boek ranks third on the UW all-time list behind Tia Bollinger (172, 2001-04) and Jamie Graves (168, 1997-00).

BOEK THROWS THIRD NO-HITTER: Senior Ashley Boek threw her third career no-hitter with a 18-0 win over Willamette on Feb. 19. Boek also had no-hitters against San Jose State in 2002 and Morehead State in 2003.

BOEK SETS POSTSEASON RECORDS: Ashley Boek tossed a complete 11-inning game vs. Creighton in the regional tournament opener, while striking out 18 batters. The 11 innings pitched and 18 strikeouts are Washington postseason single-game records. The 18 K's also tie the UW single-game record for an extra-inning game.

BOEK CRACKS TOP FIVE: Ashley Boek has cracked into the UW career top five list in numerous categories this season. Boek holds the record for career starts (125), ranks second in strikeouts (827), third in appearances (163) and shutouts (27) and fourth in wins (86) and complete games (73).

NOBLE GETS 200TH K: Freshman Caitlin Noble has struck out 227 batters this season to rank fifth on the UW single-season all-time chart. She is just the fourth UW player in school history to strikeout 200 or more batters in a single-season. Jennifer Spediacci is the only Husky to strikeout 300 batters in a season, fanning 316 batters in 2000. Ashley Boek ranks second on UW's all-time list with 283 K's last season and has struck out 210 batters this year.

WASHINGTON SOFTBALL

MAY 24, 2005

NOBLE TOSSES NO-HITTER: Freshman Caitlin Noble became just the third freshman in Husky history to throw a no-hitter when she held Kansas hitless on Feb. 26 en route to the 4-0 win. UW has had 23 no-hitters in its history.

NOBLE SETS STRIKEOUT RECORD: Freshman Caitlin Noble struck out 16 batters against Willamette in six innings on Feb. 19 to set a UW record for most strikeouts in a regulation game. The previous record of 15 strikeouts in seven innings was set by current Husky pitching coach Eve Gaw. Gaw fanned 15 against Western Washington on April 9, 1995. The most strikeouts in Washington history is 18, set by Jennifer Spediacci in a nine inning game against Oregon State on May 13, 2000 and Ashley Boek in last week's 11 inning game vs. Creighton (May 20).

FISKE COMES THRU IN PAC-10 PLAY: For the second year in a row, Kathy Fiske was clutch for Washington in the Pac-10 season. Fiske led the Huskies with 17 RBIs in Pac-10 play, while Aimee Minor had 15 RBIs and Kristen Rivera had 14.

FISKE SETS GRAND SLAM RECORD: With two grand slams this season, senior Kathy Fiske has set a UW career record with five grand slams. The previous record of four grand slams was set by Jenny Topping in 2000. Fiske hit grand slams against Arizona State (Apr. 17) and Nevada (Apr. 24) this season. Both home runs came in the first inning.

HYATT HITS 'EM IN: Junior Sarah Hyatt has driven in 44 RBIs this season to bring her career total to 112 RBIs to rank ninth on the UW list. She surpassed current Husky head coach Heather Tarr who had 104 RBIs from 1994-97. Other current players on the list include Kristen Rivera (second- 230) and Kathy Fiske (eighth-140).

HYATT ENTERS HOME RUN TOP 10: Sarah Hyatt has belted 15 home runs this season to rank 10th on the UW single-season list. She has 34 career home runs to tie Kathy Fiske for the No. 4 spot on the UW all-time chart. Jen Cline ranks third on the Washington list with 43 home runs between 1993-96. Other current Huskies on that list include Kristen Rivera (first- 25, 2003; fourth- 19, 2005; sixth- 17, 2004; ninth- 16, 2002) and Aimee Minor (sixth- 17, 2005).

MINOR BECOMES MAJOR THREAT: Junior Aimee Minor has belted 17 home runs to rank sixth on the UW single-season list. She has hit 25 home runs in her career to rank eighth at UW and is two away from the No. 6 spot shared by All-Americans Sara Pickering (27, 1994-97) and Jenny Topping (27, 2000). Minor has hit two home runs in the same game three times this season. She hit two homers vs. Ohio State on Feb. 26 at the Palm Springs Classic, two against Portland State in the first game of a double header on March 12 and two against Nebraska at the regional tournament (May 21). Other current players on the UW top-10 home run list include Kristen Rivera (first-77), Kathy Fiske (fourth- 34) and Sarah Hyatt (fourth-34).

IN THE CLUTCH: Junior Aimee Minor leads the team with 53 RBIs and 32 of those have come with two outs. Kristen Rivera ranks second on the team with 16 two out RBIs, while Sarah Hyatt has 14 and Kathy Fiske has 12.

AIMEE MINOR NAMED PAC-10 PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Aimee Minor was named Pacific-10 Conference Player of the Week for May 9-15 after leading the Huskies with a .714 average against Oregon State and Oregon. Minor, an outfielder from San Jacinto, Calif., went 5-for-7 from the plate with two runs, a triple, a home run and six RBIs as the Huskies defeated Oregon State and split with Oregon. She boasted a 1.429 slugging percentage and an .800 on-base percentage after drawing four walks. Minor went 2-for-3 in Washington's 9-0 upset victory over sixth-ranked Oregon State on May 12. She drove in four runs, hit a triple, stole a base and scored one run. She went 1-for-1 on May 13 vs. Oregon, hitting a single and walking twice. On May 14, Minor 2-for-3 with her 15th home run of the season against Oregon in the Pac-10 finale. She drove in two runs, walked and stole one base.

LAUREN GREER NAMED PAC-10 PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Washington freshman outfielder Lauren Greer was named the Pacific-10 Conference Softball Player of the Week for April 19-25. She led the Huskies to a 3-1 record, including an upset win over No. 10 UCLA on April 23 and a pair of wins over Nevada on April 24. Greer, from Placentia, Calif., hit the game-winning home run against UCLA on April 23 with a two-run shot to left field. Greer followed up that performance with a 4-for-6 showing against Nevada in a doubleheader. Greer went 3-for-4 with two doubles, a walk and three runs in the opener. She also went 1-for-2 with a two-run home run against Nevada in game two. On the week, Greer led all players with a .667 average, going 8-for-12 from the plate with five runs scored, four RBIs, one double and two home runs.

STEALING BASES: The Huskies have stolen 72 bases in 92 attempts this season to rank second in the Pac-10. Washington had just 39 stolen bases all of last season. Freshman Ashley Charters leads the team and conference with 32 steals in 37 attempts, which ranks seventh on the UW single-season list. The last Husky to steal 30 or more bases in a season was Rosie Leutzinger who picked 35 bags in 39 tries in 1998.

UW USES THE LONG BALL: Washington has smacked 76 home runs this season to lead the Pac-10 and rank fourth nationally. The Dawgs have given up just 19 home runs. Washington is 29-

10 when hitting a home run and 5-10 when it does not hit a dinger. The Huskies hit six home runs against Nevada on Apr. 24 in the opening game of a double header to set a school record. Washington has also hit four home runs in the same game four times, including a 17-7 romp of Illinois (Feb. 12), a 14-4 win over Portland State (Mar. 12), a 14-0 victory over Nevada in the nightcap and a 7-6 win over Nebraska in the regional tournament. UW has hit at least one home run in 39 of 54 games this season and two home runs or more 21 times. UW has hit back-to-back home runs eight times this season. Sarah Hyatt and Aimee Minor have gone back-to-back four times and did it twice in the regional game vs. Nebraska. Hyatt has also gone back-to-back with Jacki Hansen and Kristen Rivera. Rivera has also gone back-to-back with Kathy Fiske. Lauren Greer and Callie Bergan went back-to-back against Nevada.

HITTING FOR POWER: The Huskies boast a .502 slugging percentage and are challenging the school record of .511 set in 2000. Washington has the 10th highest slugging percentage in the country.

UW SCORES BIG: Washington has scored double-figure runs nine times this season. The Huskies defeated Nevada 22-1 and 14-0 on April 24 and defeated Willamette 18-0 on Feb. 19. UW also beat Illinois 17-7, Portland State 14-4, Arizona State 12-4, Jacksonville 12-0, DePaul 11-6 and IPFW 11-0. The UW record for runs scored in a game is 28, set in a 28-0 victory over Stanford on April 23, 1993.

UW FALLS ON SHORT SIDE OF ONE-RUN GAMES: Nine of Washington's 20 losses this season have come by one run. The Huskies are 7-9 in one-run games but are 2-0 in the postseason in one-run ballgames.

EXTRA-INNINGS MEAN EXTRA RUNS: The Huskies have played three extra-inning games this season and have won all three. UW is out scoring its opponents 8-0 during extra-innings and junior Aimee Minor hit an extra-inning home run in the eighth inning of two of the games. She hit a leadoff two-run shot against UC Santa Barbara en route to a 4-2 win and belted a three-run home run vs. Long Beach en route to the 5-1 win. Sarah Hyatt had the game-tying hit vs. Creighton at the regional tournament and Caitlin Noble had the game-winner in the 11th inning.

SCORE EARLY, SCORE OFTEN: Washington is out scoring its opponents 310-158 this season and is doing most of its damage early on. The Huskies are out scoring their opponents 85-26 in the first inning and 64-20 in the second inning. Washington's problem inning is the third where it is being out scored 39-27.

BANG FOR YOUR BUCK: The Huskies have pounded 140 extra-base hits this season and have given up just 62. Washington has hit 60 doubles, four triples and 76 home runs compared to its opponent's 39 doubles, four triples and 19 home runs. Eleven different Huskies have hit home runs this season, including every starter. Kristen Rivera leads the team with 19 home runs, while Aimee Minor has 17 and Sarah Hyatt has 15. Kathy Fiske has belted nine home runs, Lauren Greer has five and Callie Bergan and Dominique Lastrapes have three apiece. Caitlin Noble, Ashley Charters and Torie Coury have each hit one.

IN GRAND FASHION: Four Huskies have hit six grand slams this season, including seniors Callie Bergan, Kathy Fiske and Kristen Rivera and junior Aimee Minor. Bergan hit her first career grand slam vs. Jacksonville in the season-opener in Honolulu on Feb. 3. The hit marked the first home run of her career and her second-ever extra-base hit. Her five RBI's also marked a career game-high. She had just eight in her first three years at Washington. Fiske hit her fourth career grand slam against Arizona State on April 17 and fifth against Nevada on April 24. Rivera hit her second career grand slam against Portland State on Mar. 12. Her first grand slam came last year vs. Arizona State on April 3. Minor hit her first career grand slam vs. DePaul on Mar. 19 and did it again vs. Simon Fraser on Apr. 5. Fiske holds the UW career record with five grand slams.

HUSKIES ON THE AIRWAVES: KKNW AM-1150, through rights-holder Pioneer Radio & Sports, carried 10 Husky softball games during the regular season and will carry all postseason games. Longtime baseball play-by-play man Mike Brown returns for his eighth season behind the microphone, while John Cowley delivers color commentary for his fifth season with the Dawgs. All games will air live on KKNW, and are also available over the internet at www.gohuskies.com or www.newschannel1150.com.

HUSKIES WIN HAWAII PARADISE CLASSIC: Washington opened the 2005 season with a 3-1 record at the Hawaii Paradise Classic to earn the tournament title. The Huskies tied with Hawaii and Oregon in the team standings but won the tournament title with the tie breaker (least runs scored against). UW defeated Jacksonville (12-0), IPFW (11-0) and No. 13 Oregon (6-0), before falling to host UH (7-6). Senior Kristen Rivera earned MVP honors as she hit .667 (6-for-9) with seven RBIs, six runs scored and two home runs. She was the Offensive MVP of the same tournament in 2003. Three other UW players earned all-tournament honors, including pitcher Ashley Boek, third baseman Kathy Fiske and outfielder Jacki Hansen. Washington out hit its opponents .340 to .233 and out scored its opponents 35-7.

UW PICKED SIXTH: Washington was selected to finish sixth in the league by the Conference softball coaches. Head Coach Heather Tarr, who enters her first season at the helm of the UW program, returns seven starters for the 2005 campaign, including All-American catcher and 2004 Pac-10 Player of the Year Kristen Rivera and All-American second baseman Dominique Lastrapes. Tarr, a former player at Washington, aims to guide the Huskies to their 12th postseason appearance and eighth Women's College World Series. California was picked to win the Pac-10 Conference after receiving 44 points, including three first place votes. Arizona, the 2004 Pac-10 Champion, was picked to finish second with 43 points, while 2004 National Champion UCLA was tabbed third with 42 points.

ROSTER BREAKDOWN: The 17-player Washington roster includes 10 returning letterwinners and seven returning starters. The 2005 team is comprised of five seniors, four juniors, three sophomores and five freshmen. Eight players hail from Washington, eight from California and one from Oregon.

HEAD COACH HEATHER TARR: Heather Tarr, a former Washington softball player, embarks on her first season as its head coach after a six-year stint at Pacific as an assistant coach and most recently as the associate head coach. At Pacific, the Tigers posted a 232-124 (.652) overall record and 90-44 (.672) mark in the Big West Conference. In 2001, she and Pacific head coach Brian Kolze were named the 2001 NFCA West Region Coaching Staff of the Year after guiding the Tigers to within one win of the Women's College World Series and a No. 18 final national ranking. Tarr joined Pacific prior to the 1999 season after an outstanding career as a Husky. As a four-year letterwinner, Tarr helped lead UW to a second place finish at the Women's College World Series in 1996 and a third place finish in 1997. She has a 34-20 career record at Washington and 10-11 record in the Pac-10.

RIVERA DRAFTED BY THE NPF'S TEXAS THUNDER: Washington senior Kristen Rivera has been drafted by the Texas Thunder in the first round of the 2005 Senior College Player Selections. Rivera was one of 21 athletes selected by six National Pro Fastpitch (NPF) teams over four rounds. Due to NCAA regulations, an active college senior-athlete may not sign with her respective franchise until their 2005 college season is finished.

PLAYER PROFILES

#22 CALLIE BERGAN: Has appeared in 32 games, making 17 starts ... is hitting .200 with 14 RBIs and nine runs ... opened the season with a grand slam and five RBIs vs. Jacksonville (Feb. 3), marking just her second-ever extra-base hit ... went 4-for-6 in a double header vs. Willamette (Feb. 19) with three runs, three RBIs and a double ... singled in the win over Illinois-Chicago ... went 3-for-4 with a home run against Nevada (Apr. 24) in the first game of a double header ... went two-for-three with a double and home run in the nightcap.

More on Bergan: Grew up going to Husky softball camps ... her high school coach was former UW standout Shelly Brown ... grandfather owns a fruit orchard and she enjoys spending time on the ranch ... father (Gary) played football at Washington State ... missed nearly two years of college softball because of a shoulder injury ... superstitious ... wants to go into public relations or marketing.
