Overall Record: 47-16-1
Pacific-10 Record: 5-7 (fifth)
NCAA Regional: 4-0
College World Series: 1-2 (t-fifth)

A RETURN TO THE SERIES: The Washington softball team won the No. 5 Regional Tournament in Lincoln, Neb., to advance to its sixth Women's College World Series. The fifth-seeded Huskies defeated No. 4 Oklahoma, 3-1, in the opener before dropping a pair of 2-1 ballgames to No. 1 Arizona and No. 2 UCLA.

CONSECUTIVE NCAA APPEARANCES: Washington's 10 consecutive regional appearances ties with Oklahoma for the fourth longest active string in NCAA softball.

REGIONAL RECAP: Washington entered the 2003 Regional Tournament in Lincoln, Neb. as the No. 1 seed and swept the field, 4-0, to earn its sixth bid to the Women's College World Series. The Huskies defeated Creighton, 5-1 and notched three consecutive mercy-rule shutouts over Mississippi State, 8-0 (6), and Iowa 11-0 (5) and 11-0 (6). Kristen Rivera and Tia Bollinger were named Co-MVP's of the tournament and Jaime Clark and Aimee Minor were named to the all-tournament team. The Huskies outscored their opponents 35-1.

MERCY, MERCY ME: The Huskies have posted 11 mercy-rule victories this season. Three of those mercy-rules came at the Regional Tournament to set a Husky postseason record. Washington run-ruled Mississippi State, 8-0 in six innings and Iowa, twice, 11-0 in five innings and 11-0 in six innings.

RIVERA TIES HOME RUN RECORD: With a home run against Arizona at the College World Series, Kristen Rivera set the UW single-season home run record with 25 blasts. Rivera finished the season tied with Arizona's Lovieanne Jung for the national home run lead.

BOLLINGER BLANKS 'EM: Tia Bollinger tossed three consecutive shutouts at the NCAA Regional Tournament to earn Co-MVP honors and bring her season total to 10. Overall, Bollinger has blanked 24 opponents in her career, which ranks fifth on the Husky charts.

ROAD TESTED: Washington spent 13 of the season's 16 weeks on the road. The Huskies logged 29,498 air miles in that time, visiting eight states (Arizona, California, Florida, Georgia, Hawaii, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Oregon.), not including miles shuttled between airports, restaurants and hotels. In that time, UW has picked up three tournament titles and has posted a 42-13-1 (.759) record, proving that life on the road isn't necessarily a disadvantage.

LAST TEAM STANDING: UW was the last undefeated team in the nation in 2003. The Huskies played for exactly a month (Feb. 7-Mar. 6) before suffering its first loss to Northwestern to snap a 19-game winning streak. Washington had a 19-0-1 mark during those first four weeks with the tie against Minnesota at the Arizona Pepsi Classic. Rain delayed the tournament schedule and the Huskies and Gophers were forced to rule a game locked in a 5-5 tie in the ninth over so each team could make its scheduled flight home.

GOING YARD: Washington belted seven home runs at the NCAA Regional Tournament and three more at the College World Series to set a UW record. Kristen Rivera blasted four homers, while Jaime Clark hit three, Kathy Fiske added two and Aimee Minor belted one out of the park. The previous record of eight home runs was set during the 2000 postseason. Washington tallied 75 home runs on the season.

ALL-CONFERENCE HONORS: Eight Huskies were named to the Pac-10 All-Conference team, including first team selections Jaime Clark and Kristen Rivera. Clark received her fourth All-Pac-10 honor after leading the Huskies to their 10th consecutive NCAA Tournament bid and a No. 1 seed. Rivera earned her second All-Pac-10 nod after being the only freshman to be a first team pick in 2002. The Huskies have had 77 players earn Pac-10 All-Conference honors in its 11-year history.

ALL-PACIFIC REGION: Two Washington softball players were among the 26 players named to the 2003 National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-Pacific Region team. Kristen Rivera was a first team selection, while Tia Bollinger was a second team pick. Overall, the Huskies have had 42 players earn All-Pacific Region honors.

FIGHTING LIKE CATS AND DAWGS: In the final Pac-10 game of the season, Washington and Arizona played a three-hour slugfest with the Wildcats coming out on top, 21-17. After the Huskies ran away with the 7-1 victory in the opener of the double-header, Arizona tossed its third-string pitcher and UW let four position players try a hand at collegiate pitching in an effort to save its aces for regional competition. The teams played to a 17-17 tie in the seventh before UA's Jackie Coburn hit a game-winning grand slam off Washington's starting left fielder to end the game. The Huskies broke just two records in the game, including most runs scored by an opponent and combined runs (38).

CAREER RBI RECORD: Jaime Clark hit her 68th career home run versus Oregon on May 4 for her 228th career RBI. She now tops the Washington all-time chart with 243 RBIs and ranks sixth on the NCAA career list. Former Huskies Jen Cline (1993-96, 227 RBIs) and Michelle Church (1993-96, 225) rank ninth and 10th on the NCAA RBI list.

A PAIR OF ACES IN THE CIRCLE: Washington was the only team in the Pac-10 with two 15+ game winners and two pitchers with 150 or more strikeouts. Junior Tia Bollinger was 28-9 with a team-high 207 strikeouts and 1.32 earned run average. Sophomore Ashley Boek was 18-6 with 176 strikeouts in 166 innings.

HYATT HITS GAME-WINNERS: Freshman Sarah Hyatt crushed seven home runs last season, including the game-winners in two Pac-10 games. On April 5, the Huskies trailed Arizona State, 1-0 in the sixth. After a walk to Dena Tyson, Hyatt belted a two-run home run for the eventual game-winner. On April 27, Hyatt hit a walk-off three-run home run versus California in the eighth inning.

HUSKIES PACK THE HOUSE: The Huskies ranked fourth in the country in home attendance. Washington pulled in 8,002 fans over 11 home dates for an average of 727 fans per game. The top-three attendance schools are Fresno State (2,012), Arizona (1,408) and Texas (751). Michigan rounds out the top-5, bringing in 702 fans per game.

HOME RUN HEROICS: Jaime Clark set the UW all-time home run record during her junior campaign with 44. Clark has now brought her career total to 73 home runs, which ranks fifth on the NCAA all-time chart.

TOP-25 FINALIST: Washington's Kristen Rivera was one of 25 finalists for the 2003 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award (considered the Heisman Trophy in women's collegiate softball).

SAVING THE DAY: With a save versus Arizona State on April 5, junior ace Tia Bollinger became the Pac-10 and UW all-time career saves leader with 11. On April 12, Bollinger recorded her 12th career save against Oregon State, which ties for 14th on the NCAA career chart. Bollinger set the school record for single-season saves in 2002 with seven.

A 'FRESH' START: Washington's three freshman, Sarah Hyatt, Aimee Minor and Dena Tyson, saw significant starting time last season. Hyatt started 63 games, including 62 at first base and one at third base. Minor started 52 games in right field and eight as the designated player. Tyson notched 58 starts in left field, one in centerfield and one as the designated player. The trio amassed 38 percent of the team's doubles (30-of-78), 38 percent of the team's triples (3-of-8) and 28 percent of the team's home runs (21-of-75).

WALKING THE DAWGS: The Huskies drew 10 walks in two games last season. UW recorded 10 walks off of Arizona State hurler Desiree Serrano on April 5 and against Iowa's Lisa Birocci and Ali Arnold in the NCAA Regional Championship on May 18. The Dawgs drew 196 walks last season while only giving up 99 free trips.

BACK-TO-BACK DINGERS: Washington hit back-to-back home runs seven times last season, using five different combinations. Kathy Fiske and Sarah Hyatt teamed up for sequential dingers against Arkansas (Feb. 14), while Fiske and Kristen Rivera hit consecutive home runs versus Portland State (Feb. 28). Rivera and Jaime Clark went deep back-to-back three times, including twice in the Purdue match-up (Mar. 2) and once against Temple (Feb. 24). Aimee Minor and Megan Owen hit successive shots off of Texas' Cat Osterman (Mar. 14), while batting from the eight and nine positions and Minor and Hyatt hit back-to-back shots versus Illinois (Mar. 21). All totaled, Washington posted 20 multi-home run games with Rivera (3 vs. Purdue; 2 vs. Arizona, 2 vs. Iowa), Clark (2 vs. Purdue; 2 vs. Utah; 2 vs. Arizona) and Hyatt (2 vs. North Carolina) each recording more than one home run in the same game.

THE LONG BALL: The Huskies belted 75 home runs last season. Seven players hit at least one home run, including Kristen Rivera (25), Jaime Clark (17), Kathy Fiske (11), Dena Tyson (8), Sarah Hyatt (7), Aimee Minor (6) and Megan Owen (1).

THE RUN-AROUND: With a pair of runs scored versus Hawaii on March 13, Jaime Clark became the all-time career runs leader at Washington with 190 runs scored. She finished her career with 223 runs, which ranks 10th on the NCAA all-time chart.

STEALING THE SHOW: Jaime Clark was 25-for-31 in stolen base attempts last season to rank second in the Pac-10. She tied with Becky Newbry (1999) for the No. 10 spot on the Husky all-time season charts.

TAKING IT FOR THE TEAM: Washington was hit by 47 pitches this last to set the school's single-season record. The previous record of 43 hit batsmen was set in 2000. Aimee Minor led the way with 10 plunks, followed by Megan Owen and Kristen Rivera who were each pegged seven times.

FIVE BLASTS VS. THE BOILERMAKERS:

The Huskies had a banner day versus Purdue on March 3. En route to an 11-0 romp, Washington broke two school records, including most home runs by a team (five) and most home runs by an individual with three by Kristen Rivera. Jaime Clark hit the other two home runs against the Boilermakers.

USA SOFTBALL COLLEGIATE PLAYER OF THE WEEK:

After a record-setting performance at the Worth Invitational, Feb. 28-March 2, sophomore Kristen Rivera was selected as the USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Week and Pac-10 Player of the Week on March 4.

Rivera led the Huskies to five wins at the Worth Invitational and the unofficial tournament title as she hit .571 (8-for-14) over the five game stretch with a double, four home runs and 12 RBIs. Against Purdue, she hit three home runs in three at-bats to set a Washington record and tallied five RBIs.

She also went 2-for-3 against both Pacific and Northwestern with two runs scored and six RBIs combined. Rivera drew two walks over the course of the tournament and did not strikeout. Behind the plate, she was flawless with a perfect fielding percentage and threw out the only base runner that attempted to steal.

IN THE POLLS: The Huskies finished the season ranked sixth in the USA Today/NFCA Coaches Top 25 poll. UW has been ranked in each of the last 125 poll datings. Washington's streak began with the team's No. 15 preseason ranking in 1994 and also includes smaller streaks of 66 straight top 6 rankings (2/28/96 - preseason 2001 poll) and 69 consecutive poll datings in the top 10 (preseason 1996 - 2/28/01).

PAC-10 HONORS: Kristen Rivera received Pac-10 Player of the Week honors twice last season. Her first weekly award was on March 4 for her .571 showing (8-for-14) at the Worth Invitational. Rivera also received the award on March 25 for leading the Huskies to the Capital Classic title with a .471 (8-for-17) average.

Tia Bollinger was selected as the Pac-10 Pitcher of the Week on March 4 after a 3-0 mark at the Worth Invitational, Feb. 28-March 2. She gave up just 10 hits total, shutout Northwestern and allowed no earned runs in four innings of work against Purdue. Bollinger rung up 14 batters in 16 innings for a team-low 0.44 ERA and allowed only one run in three appearances. She limited No. 20 Ohio State to three hits and Purdue to only two.

Tia Bollinger earned All-America honors after recording 28 wins for the Huskies in 2003.
