UW HEADS TO TULSA FOR NCAA FINALS

The Dawgs look for their first national title in program history.

THE DAWGS AT THE NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Huskies will compete in their 12th NCAA Championships in program history, May 20-23, at the Tulsa Country Club in Tulsa, Oklahoma. The Dawgs will look to improve on an all-time best finish of sixth place, accomplished in both 2004 and 2006. Washington enters the week at the sixth-ranked team in the country after finishing second at the NCAA West Regional last week in Suncadia, Wash. The 24-team NCAA field includes 19 teams ranked in the top-25, including seven from the Pac-12. This is the first NCAA Finals for the Dawgs since 2011 when the team finished 16th. Kelli Bowers is the only remaining player left from that squad. She led the Huskies with a T-26th as a freshman and now returns for her second NCAA's.

HUSKY LINEUP

Mary Lou Mulflur will send a talented and experienced group to Tulsa to play in the NCAA Championships. It will be the same lineup the placed second at Regionals and sixth at the Pac-12 Championships. Four of the Husky players are ranked in the top-60 in the golfstat.com rankings, including Jennifer Yang and SooBin who are currently 19st and 21st. Kim has been the Huskies hottest player, finishing as the NCAA West Regional runner-up in her last tournament. She won the final regular season event, the Silverado Invitational and then led the Huskies with a 13th-place finish at Pac-12's. Yang is second on the team with six top-10's and was the Dawgs top finisher in four-straight tournaments at one point this spring. Also with national rankings are Charlotte Thomas and Ying Luo. Thomas is currently ranked 28th and is third on the team with a 72.85 scoring average. She is coming off a final round at regionals where she was the only player to break par on a difficult windy day. Luo is ranked 66th and has three top-10 finishes for the Huskies this season. She made the NCAA Championships last season as an individual, placing T-50th. Bowers is the only Husky with NCAA team experience and is coming off a T-39th at regionals.

UW IN 2013-14

Washington has been consistently in contention this season, including two tournament victories. The Dawgs opened the fall season with a historic 50-stroke victory at the Topy Cup in Japan, but then did not win again until mid-April with an impressive 13-stroke win at the Silverado Invitational against a field that included top-ranked USC. Overall, the Dawgs have eight top-three finishes, including last week's runner-up spot at the NCAA West Regional. Individually, Thomas opened the season with a win at the Topy Cup in Japan, while Kim won at at the Silverado Invitational. In addition to the wins, Kim has two runner-ups, Yang has a pair of thirdplace finishes and Luo also has a third.

THE COURSE

Tulsa Country Club's original 18 hole golf course was designed by A.W. Tillinghast in 1920. The course was redesigned and opened on July 1st, 2011 by Rees Jones. For the NCAA Championships, the course will play to a par 70 and measure 6,194 yards.

COACH MARY LOU MULFLUR - 31st YEAR (WASHINGTON, 1980)

In the history of the Husky women's golf team, two individuals stand out as the cornerstones for the program. The first is Edean Ihlanfeldt, the namesake of the Huskies' annual fall tournament. She was Washington's first coach, starting the program in 1974-75. So dedicated to seeing women have an opportunity to compete on the intercollegiate level, Ihlanfeldt never accepted a paycheck for her efforts; funneling her salary back into the program. The second is current head coach Mary Lou Mulflur, who is in her 31st season directing the Huskies.

A player for Ihlanfeldt, Mulflur's passion and commitment to Husky golf makes her former mentor proud. Mulflur's dedication, teaching and coaching skills as well as her fundraising abilities have allowed her to build the Husky program into one of the nation's most competitive teams on an annual basis.

In 30 seasons as the Husky women's golf coach, Mulflur has led the Huskies to 20 of the 21 NCAA Regionals that have been contested since their inception in 1993. She has also led her teams to ten NCAA Championships with their best finishes coming in 2004 and 2006 where the Huskies placed sixth.

For her service to Washington women's golf and college golf in general, Mulflur was inducted into the Women's Golf Coaches Association Hall of Fame in December, 2013.

Mulflur has coached several Huskies who have gone on to play professionally and/ or coach at the collegiate level. Nancy Kessler-McDaniel, a member of Mulflur's first recruiting class, played at Washington from 1984 to 1988 and finished her career as an All-American in 1987-88. Kessler-McDaniel went on to play professionally and is the current head coach at Cal-Berkeley. Former Husky All-American Kelli Kamimura is currently the head coach at Washington State University.

Mulflur also coached current LPGA players Paige Mackenzie and Louise Friberg. These two former Huskies played together at the 2008 SBS Open at Turtle Bay, the first time two UW alumni have played in the same LPGA event. Mackenzie is the only player from a "Northern" school to win the individual conference title, claiming victory in 2006. She also recorded 24 top-10 finishes, ranking first in Husky women's golf team history. Friberg has 13 total top-10 finishes, ranking fourth all-time. Friberg won on the LPGA tour in 2005 in Mexico with a final round 65.

Mulflur's players have also achieved in the classroom. Mackenzie was named to the Women's Golf Coaches Association All-Scholar Team three-straight seasons and during Mulflur's tenure, 16 UW golfers have earned the distinction on 25 occasions. She also boasts a 100% graduation rate.
